WELCOME TO NATIONALS PARK

Located in the heart of the nation's capital, Nationals Park redefines modern sports facility architecture and serves as a cornerstone of the new mixed-use Capitol Riverfront, adjacent to the Navy Yard in Southeast Washington.

INNOVATIVE ARCHITECTURE UNIQUE TO WASHINGTON, D.C

From South Capitol Street, the ballpark presents a monumental façade of architectural pre-cast concrete, metal and glass, with features consistent with the traditions of D.C.'s most notable civic buildings.

Nationals Park can easily be accessed by fans, especially those arriving from the north via the Navy Yard-Ballpark Metro Station, or on foot from nearby offices and residential neighborhoods.

Nationals Park guests are encouraged to visit D.C.'s other attractions on their way to the ballpark. In addition to the area around the Navy Yard and Southwest Waterfront (Green Line), guests can take the Orange/Blue Line to the Capitol South Metro and walk to Nationals Park along New Jersey Ave to M Street. Guests can also take the Orange/Blue Line to the Eastern Market station and enjoy a multitude of restaurant and retail offerings along Barracks Row's 8th Street SE.

Fans can enter Nationals Park through Center Field Plaza and continue along the main concourse, which sweeps around the entire ballpark and offers an almost complete 360-degree open view of the playing field.

Other entry gates include: Left Field Gate, with entry access on South Capitol Street SE; Third Base Gate, with entry access on South Capitol Street SE; Home Plate Gate, with entry access on Potomac Avenue; First Base Gate, with entry access on Potomac Avenue SE; and Right Field Gate, with entry access on First Street SE.

The seating bowl wraps around the various levels of the facility in a circular expression of steel and concrete, offering openness and panoramic views of the Anacostia waterfront, Navy Yard, and landmarks such as the U.S. Capitol and the Washington Monument.

CUTTING-EDGE FAN EXPERIENCE

Nationals Park is equipped with advanced high-definition audio-visual technology, including a 4,800 square-foot high-definition scoreboard, as well as more than 600 linear feet of LED ribbon board along the inner bowl fascia.

The ballpark also features a variety of entertainment and fan interactive activities, food service venues, retail operations and family-friendly entertainment to ensure a compelling gameday experience.

With a fully functioning meeting and conference center, four large club spaces, luxurious suites and spectacular views, Nationals Park is the ideal backdrop for corporate or personal events.

GREEN DESIGN

As the first major sports facility in the U.S. to earn the LEED-certified Silver designation by the U.S. Green Building Council, Nationals Park is considered one of the most environmentally friendly ballparks in the country. The facility incorporates a variety of sustainable design elements, including:

A Sustainable Site

- Located near the Anacostia River, Nationals Park was categorized as a brownfield redevelopment and has served as a catalyst for urban revitalization in the area.
- The ballpark's location is easily accessible to public transportation, including access to nearby metro stations and local bus routes.

Use of Materials

- Water-conserving plumbing fixtures are used throughout the facility, reducing overall water consumption.
- Energy-saving light fixtures help reduce light pollution and results in a projected 21 percent energy savings over typical field lighting.
- Content of building materials used on the project contained a minimum of 10 percent recycled content.
- Many of the building materials used on the project were produced regionally, which cut down on transportation costs while promoting the local economy.
- Interior materials including adhesives, carpet glues and paints were specified with low VOC contents.
- Roof materials offer a high degree of reflectance, minimizing the amount of heat released to the environment. A 6,300 square foot green roof above the concession area beyond left field also minimizes roof heat gain.

An Intricate Ground and Stormwater Filtration System

- Because Nationals Park is within close proximity to the Anacostia River, much care was taken to treat storm and ground water runoff.
- The result is a unique, intricate water filtration system that separates water used for cleaning the ballpark from rainwater falling on the ballpark and treats both sources of water before it is released to the sanitary and stormwater systems.

NATIONALS PARK

NATIONALS PARK: QUICK FACTS

Opening Date: March 30, 2008

Designed By: The joint venture team of Populous (formerly HOK Sport) and Devrouax-Purnell Architects

2016 Seat Capacity: 41,313

Field Dimensions: Left Field - 336 Feet
Center Field - 402 Feet
Right Field - 335 Feet

Playing Surface

- The natural grass field consists of a four-way blend of Kentucky Bluegrass grown on a 90 percent sand base profile.
- Infield Dirt is a designed mix of sand, silt, and clay; provided by DuraEdge
- Warning Track is a crushed red lava stone
- Drainage lines are installed in pea gravel and are made of six-inch polyethylene pipe and run every 15 feet.

Interesting Facts

- Inspiration for the look of the ballpark was taken from the I. M. Pei-designed East Wing of the National Gallery of Art.
- Because the field is 24 feet below street level, more than half of the crowd will walk straight off the street, onto the main concourse and into their seats, without ever using elevators or climbing ramps or stairs.
- Populous (formerly HOK Sport), the ballpark's designer, borrowed the inspiration for an odd, right-angled jog into the left center field fence from the now demolished Griffith Stadium, former home of the Washington Senators.

TASTING THE DMV

The Nationals are dedicated to offering an array of local flavors at the ballpark. With Ben's Chili Bowl serving as a Washington, D.C. staple and the Chesapeake Crab Cake Company representing the state of Maryland, the Nationals set out to feature delicious fare that would reflect the state of Virginia. With the opening of the Virginia Country Kitchen stand in May 2015, Nationals Park now features flavors from D.C., Maryland and Virginia.

Ben's Chili Bowl

- Since 1958, Ben's Chili Bowl has been a D.C. institution, and has also become a beloved fixture at Nationals Park. Guests can find Ben's Chili Dog, Chili Cheese Fries and the Chili Bowl, all featuring Ben's famous chili mix, in Sections 109, 140 and the Gallery Level.

Chesapeake Crab Cake Company

- Located near Section 112, the Chesapeake Crab Cake Company brings flavors from the state of Maryland to the ballpark by featuring several delectable crab offerings, including a Crab Cake Sandwich, Crab Grilled Cheese and Crab Shack Chips.

Virginia Country Kitchen

- Virginia Country Kitchen, which can be found near Section 113, represents the state of Virginia and serves mouth-watering biscuit sandwiches, snacks and Virginian beer and wine.

VEGETARIAN FRIENDLY

The Nationals strive to provide guests with a variety of delicious, healthy food options and are continuously looking for ways to incorporate more vegetarian-friendly options.

- In 2015, the Nationals introduced Veggie Dogs, a vegetarian twist on a ballpark classic.
- PETA has named Nationals Park one of the top five Vegetarian-Friendly Major League Ballparks for three straight years (No. 3 in 2015).

NEW FOR 2016

PNC Diamond Club Renovation

- The Washington Nationals redesigned the PNC Diamond Club over the offseason to create a better guest experience for club members. Some of the features include a new Mezzanine level, with seating and a feature bar, as well as additional food locations. On the main level, the bar has been expanded and a new authentic pizza station has been added. The club will also have a brand new entrance and a new audio visual system with an increased number of larger televisions.

Gallery Level Concession Stand Renovations

- Based on fan feedback, the Nationals renovated four concession stands on the Gallery level to increase the number of food options in that area of the ballpark. Two of the locations will feature food from D.C. chef and restaurateur Mike Isabella: Kapnos at the Park will be a spin-off of his Greek restaurant, Kapnos, and a new concept called Catchfly will feature Southern-inspired cuisine.

Shake Shack Expansion

- Based on the popularity of the Nationals Park Shake Shack, the Nationals have worked with Union Square Events to expand the location's footprint. El Verano Taqueria, which moved to accommodate Shake Shack's expansion, will offer loaded nachos and frozen margaritas from their new cart located in section 233.

NOT JUST FOR BASEBALL

In addition to baseball, Nationals Park was constructed with the purpose of hosting the highest-quality entertainment experiences for the District of Columbia and surrounding region. Since opening in 2008, Nationals Park has gained a reputation as one of the premiere locations for outdoor concerts and other events, with a favorable fan experience, access to transportation and the magnetism of the vibrant Capitol Riverfront community.

CONCERT PREPARATION AT NATIONALS PARK

Thanks to the hard work and dedication of our outstanding grounds crew, Nationals Park is able to host outdoor concerts and other exciting events. Below is a description of the process to transform Nationals Park from a ballpark into a world-class entertainment venue.

- Concert preparation begins several months prior to concert load-in.
- Field transformation begins immediately following the last out of the game preceding the concert. Protective tarps are placed over the entire infield dirt area and protective flooring is placed over the warning track surface.
- The following morning, stage load-in begins. This usually takes place over a two-to-three-day period. The grounds crew is responsible for overseeing all movements and placements onto the field. The crew must ensure that plywood and protective mats designed to protect against erosion are properly positioned under places where the stage touches the grass. They also supervise all crane movements from the time they enter the building until the time the crane exits the building.
- Once the stage has been constructed, production load-in will begin (generally the day before the concert). This process involves all speakers, video screens, lights, musical instruments and other electronics. This takes several hours. The grounds crew oversees all movements and assists the production team in order to limit or prevent potential field damage.
- Following production load-in, protective flooring is placed across all exposed grass.
- The day of the concert, soil and surface temperatures are monitored. The grounds crew walks the field several times looking for any power cables that may be touching the grass. These cables draw heat and can damage the turf within minutes if they are touching the grass.
- Concert load-out begins immediately following the end of the concert and concludes anywhere between 16 to 24 hours later.
- Upon completion of load-out, the grounds crew spends the remaining time prepping the field for when the Nationals return home.

EDUCATION INITIATIVES

D.C. PUBLIC LIBRARY'S SUMMER READING PROGRAM

The Nationals sponsor the D.C. Public Library's Summer Reading program which aims to combat the "summer slide" of the loss of learning that children experience during the summer months. Summer is a great time for kids to get caught up in a good book, and youth ages 6-18 enrolled in the Summer Reading program are rewarded with two free tickets to select Nationals games for completing the program. Players also visit libraries across the city during the summer for various reading events.

Throughout the school year, students from Columbia Heights Education Campus, Wilson High School and Ballou High School are invited to take part in experiential seminars with Nationals executives, culminating with work-based learning experiences during the 2016 season for top students. Additionally, workshops are held for faculty members to meet with front office staff to provide input and guidance to ensure curriculum alignment to industry expectations and standards.

WHITE HOUSE AT BAT: A PRESIDENTIAL HISTORY CHALLENGE

The Nationals have partnered with the White House Historical Association to challenge D.C.-area students to create a storyboard for a 50-second video that examines the Constitutional powers of a (racing) president. The project focuses on decision-making in the White House, and studies how executive decisions throughout history were influenced by, and impacted the diverse constituencies that make up the American citizenry.

Five winning entries will be aired on NatsHD during a game at Nationals Park. Additional details are available at whitehousehistory.org/nationals.

EVERYBODY WINS! D.C.

The Nationals continue their partnership with Everybody Wins! D.C., the largest children's literacy and mentoring organization in the metropolitan area. JAYSON WERTH

Through his "Jayson and Pals" program, Jayson Werth hosts children affected by celiac disease. Throughout the season, Werth provides tickets, NatsBucks and an on-field batting practice viewing along with a private meet-and-greet.

Jayson and his wife, Julia, also serve as co-chairpersons of the Children's National Medical Center Celiac Disease Gala.

RYAN ZIMMERMAN

Ryan Zimmerman's commitment to the community is best illustrated through his work with the ziMS Foundation, which he founded in 2006, his first full season in the Major Leagues. The ziMS Foundation aims to raise money and awareness for programs benefitting those afflicted with multiple sclerosis. Multiple Sclerosis is a disease quite close to Ryan's heart. In 1995, his mother, Cheryl, was diagnosed with MS, a chronic and unpredictable disease that affects the central nervous system.

Serving as the foundation's president, Zimmerman is actively involved in decision making and donates his time, money and image to promoting the Foundation. Though it remains staffed entirely by volunteers, including friends and family, the foundation has raised $1.5 million to increase awareness toward a cure for MS.

Additional information about community outreach, including an updated calendar of events, can be found at nationals.com/community or by contacting the Community Relations department at 202.640.7706.

Since 1972, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as The Commissioner's Award) to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was re-named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill always will be remembered. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually select a winner from a list of 30 nominees, one from each Major League Baseball club.

HEART AND HUSTLE AWARD

Created by the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association in 2005, the Heart & Hustle Award is voted on by Alumni and active Major League players and is presented annually to an active player who demonstrates a passion for the game of baseball and best embodies the values, spirit and traditions of the game.

The MLBPAA formed 30 committees, comprised of Alumni players with established relationships to each team. One player from each Major League team is chosen by the committees based on the passion, desire, and work ethic demonstrated both on and off the field. These players are recognized prior to a late-season home game. As the season draws to a close, fans, all Alumni and active players vote to select the final winner from the 30 team winners.

BOB FELLER ACT OF VALOR AWARD

The Bob Feller Act of Valor Foundation, through the unique intersection of baseball and the US Navy, recognizes and honors those who support service men and women with the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award, using the Bob Feller story to educate the youth of today on the lessons of citizenship, service to one's country, and sacrifice in times of great national need. Teaching the legacy of the Greatest Generation to the youngest generation helps instill in them the virtues of service to others.

THE NATIONALS AND THE USO

On several occasions, the Washington Nationals have been personally invited to join General Martin E. Dempsey, former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on his Annual Chairman's USO Holiday Tour.

Nationals participants have included former players Doug Fister (2014), Adam LaRoche (2013), Ross Detwiler (2012) and Craig Stammen (2012).

The Nationals work with the USO and the USO of Metropolitan Washington-Baltimore chapter on a variety of programs that serve military families in the D.C. region. In particular, the Me and a Friend program, developed in 2010 in coordination with the Department of Defense, recognizes the challenges that military children face as they frequently relocate due to their parents' military assignments. For every Sunday home game, the Nationals provide 100 tickets to military children through the USO's Ticketline program, giving them the opportunity to invite a new friend. The group is first in line for Kids Run the Bases after the game.

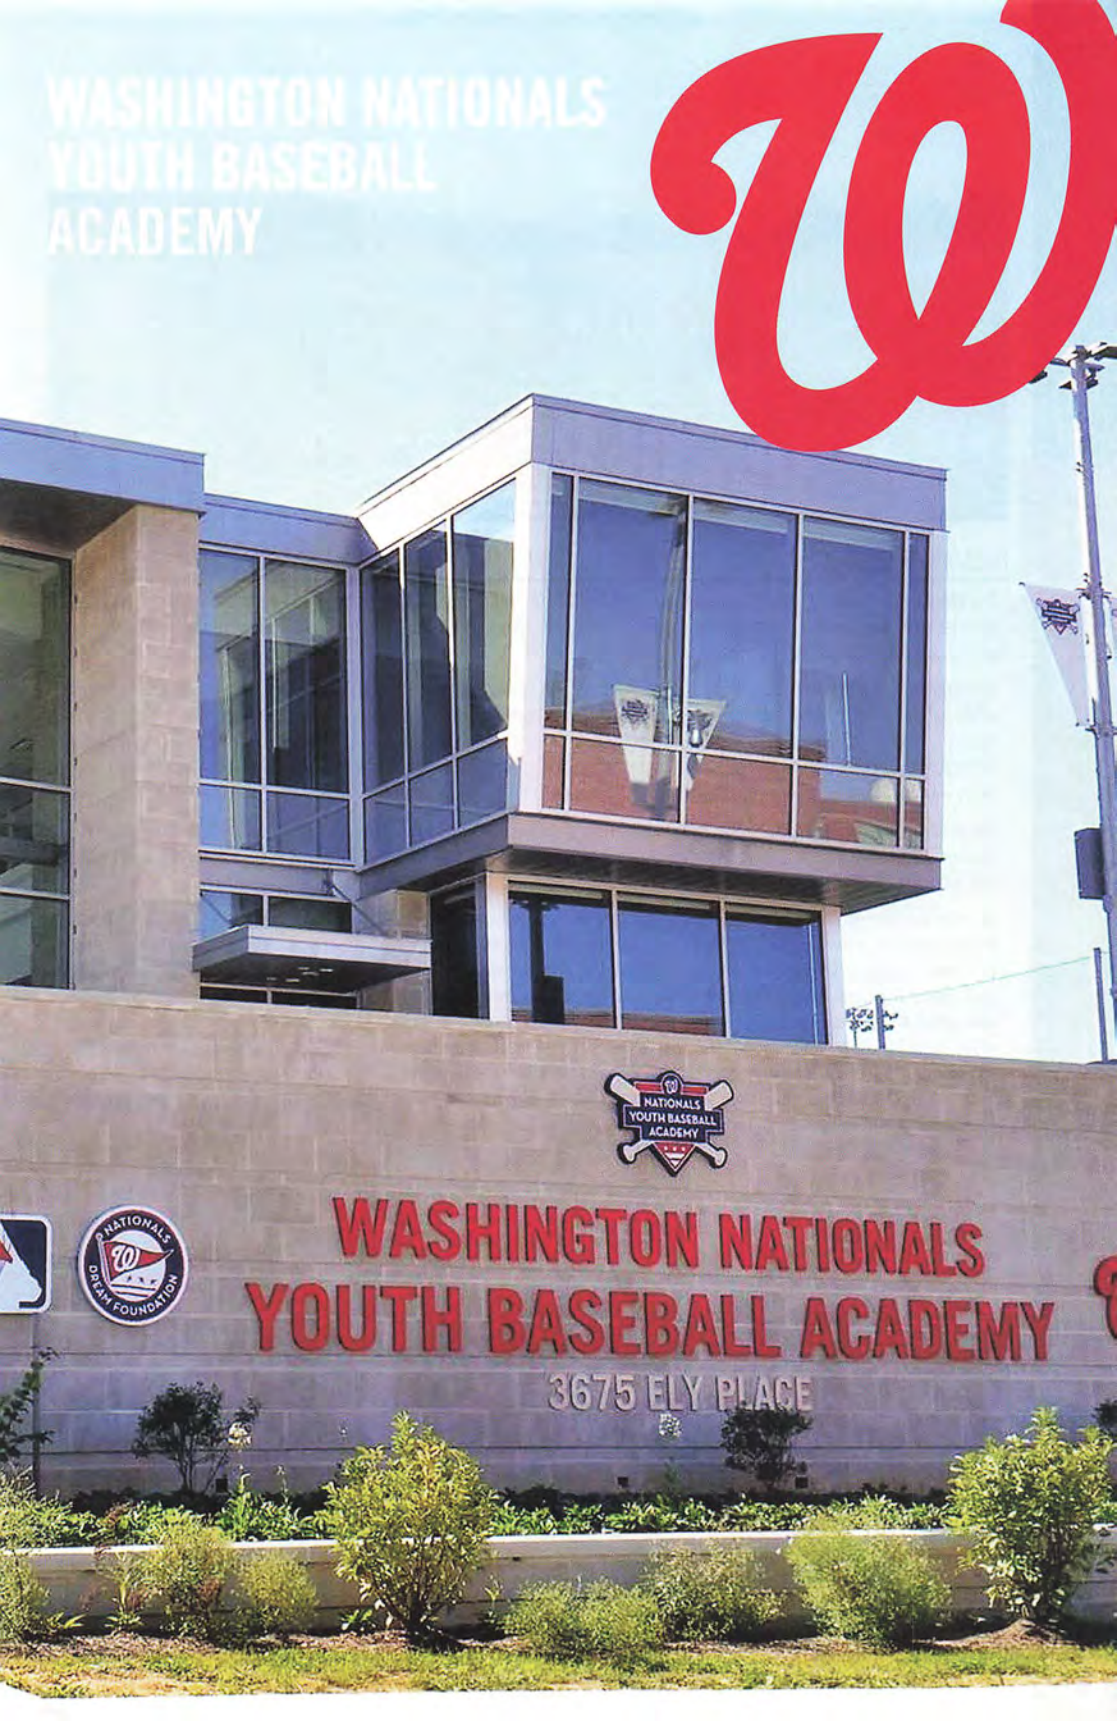
WASHINGTON NATIONALS YOUTH BASEBALL ACADEMY



YOUTH BASEBALL ACADEMY

MISSION STATEMENT

The Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that uses baseball and softball as vehicles to foster positive character development, academic achievement, and improved health among youth from underserved communities in Washington, D.C.

Operating out of a state-of-the-art, nine-acre education and recreation campus in Ward 7's Fort Dupont Park, the Academy offers an enduring environment for children to receive high quality, youth development programming. The facility at the Academy, opened in March of 2014, features an 18,000 sq. ft. "education clubhouse" complete with seven classrooms, a full teaching kitchen, and multi-purpose training / education space. The grounds at the Academy include three fully-lit, turf fields – two multipurpose youth baseball/softball diamonds and full 90' diamond.

The Academy was created out of a public/private partnership that involved the sustained commitment and involvement of the Nationals organization, the Dream Foundation, team ownership, the city of Washington D.C., the Federal Government, MLB, and numerous D.C. stakeholders committed to youth development.

The core program, which operates 120 days during the year, includes after-school and summer components and uses a holistic approach and intensive coaching/mentoring relationships to nurture the development of high-impact character attributes, proficient academic performance, and healthy lifestyles. The program will enroll 180 third through seventh grade boys and girls from D.C. neighborhoods east of the Anacostia River as Academy "Scholar-Athletes" during the 2016/17 program year. A new cohort of 36 third-graders will begin each summer while previous classes matriculate, eventually growing to reach 216 youth in grades three through eight. The after-school program meets three days a week from 3:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., and the summer program offers a full day experience to these same Scholar-Athletes for six weeks. Both components offer a rigorous "Science of Baseball" curriculum with experiential learning projects, health/nutrition education, plentiful opportunities to play baseball and softball each day, and more.

The culture at the Academy is grounded in the positive values of sports – instilling a love of physical activity as well as the qualities of determination, resiliency, teamwork and goal setting in the youth being served. The model is heavily dependent on the involvement of community volunteers, who serve as tutors, mentors and coaches. These committed individuals are trained by the Academy and its partners in positive coaching/education methodologies, allowing them to support youth in developing the skills necessary to overcome the challenges of poverty, reach their full academic potential, and lead long and healthy lives.

Informed by its five-year strategic plan, which takes the organization into 2021, the Academy also aspires to serve as a community-wide resource and a hub for youth baseball and softball activity in D.C. In 2015, the Academy organized or hosted nearly 1,000 events for more than 7,000 unique participants with plans to do even more in 2016. In addition to the core programming modules, the Academy will offer innovative, impactful activities and events that improve educational, health and social-emotional outcomes for children, families, and the community as a whole. In 2016, the Academy will launch its city-wide baseball and softball development program, which will train and support a cadre of community-based coaches and implement a summer league that greatly increases affordable and fun playing opportunities. Other adult education programs and community activities will also take place throughout the year.

For more information, or to arrange a visit to the Academy, please contact Preston Shytle, Senior Director of Development at the Academy, at preston.shytle@nationals.com or 202-827-8960, Ext. 6006. More information is available at www.nationalsacademy.org

NOTES

FRONT OFFICE & OWNERSHIP

Dear Washington Nationals Media and Fans,

Even as we get ready for our 12th season, the wait for the start of spring training still feels endless and winter never seems to get any shorter.

The 2015 season brought us many memorable moments. During his first year in D.C., Max Scherzer etched his name into the annals of history, completing not one, but two dominant no-hitters. Those performances, along with many other times Max climbed the mound last year only left us wanting more. We can't wait to see what he does for an encore.

And, of course, we all witnessed the National League MVP Bryce Harper taking his game to a whole new level. Watching his historic performance day in and day out, it was no surprise to see his well-deserved unanimous crowning in November. Harper is the fourth-youngest player ever to win the MVP award and the first MVP in franchise history. It was such a joy to watch him play all season. We know the question on everyone's mind is the same: After that performance, what will 2016 bring?

Our preparation for the 2016 season began early. We were thrilled to welcome Dusty Baker as our new Manager in early November, and look forward to seeing him man the dugout. Dusty brings nearly 50 years of professional baseball experience with him to D.C., and is among the winningest managers in baseball history. He has deep postseason experience, both as a manager and as a player, and has produced seven postseason teams, including five division championships. To top it all off, he'll be joined by an extremely talented and experienced coaching staff.

We have other new faces to welcome to Nationals Park. Through shrewd trades and free agent acquisitions we've brought new blood into the bullpen. Together with the consistent offensive abilities of new infielder Daniel Murphy and outfielder Ben Revere, we've strengthened our already talented roster.

Beyond the ballpark, we're proud to continue providing jerseys and caps for every Little Leaguer in Washington, D.C. The Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy has expanded its programming to provide year-round academic support and nutritional guidance, as well as a place to play baseball and softball at its beautiful Anacostia campus. The Dream Foundation is also kicking off a new focus on partnering with other community organizations to renovate baseball fields across the DMV.

We're looking forward to seeing you at Nationals Park as we begin another season to remember.

Thank you for your continued support!

Go Nats!

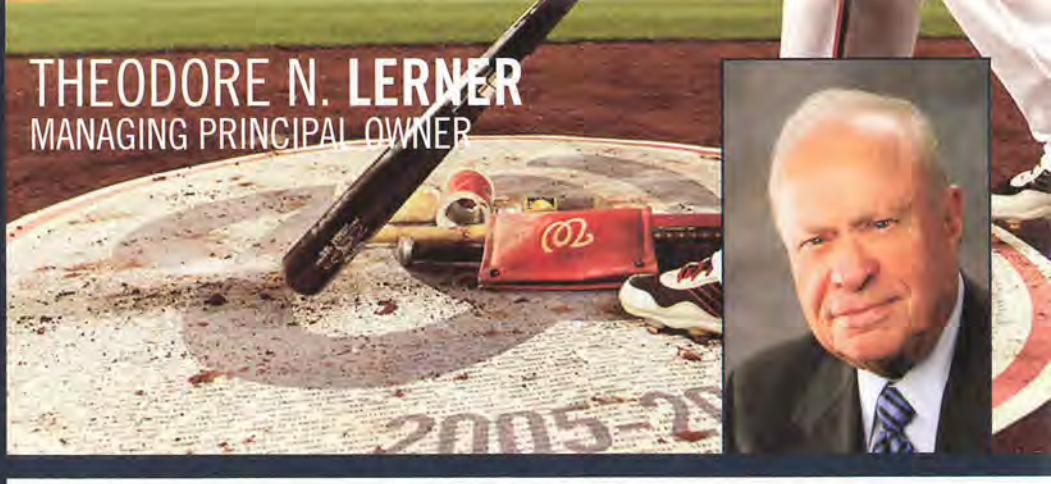
THEODORE N. LERNER
MANAGING PRINCIPAL OWNER



For a lifelong baseball fan who paid 25 cents to sit in the bleachers at Griffith Stadium to watch the Senators, and worked as an usher in the ballpark as a teenager, owning the Washington Nationals is the realization of a lifetime dream.

Since becoming the Managing Principal Owner of the Nationals on May 3, 2006, Ted Lerner and his family have worked non-stop to build the Nationals into a world-class baseball team in their hometown. Knowing how important baseball is to the Nation's Capital, Ted Lerner and the Lerner family are dedicated to making the team a winner and Nationals Park a success for the fans.

Born and raised in Washington, D.C., Ted Lerner founded Lerner Enterprises in 1952, and it is the largest private real estate development company in the metropolitan Washington, D.C. area. He is a graduate of The George Washington University and has a law degree from The George Washington University National Law Center.

Mr. Lerner has served on the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee of The George Washington University. Two buildings have been donated to the University - the Annette and Theodore Lerner Family Health and Wellness Center and the Theodore N. Lerner Hall at the GWU National Law Center. Their private foundation, The Annette M. and Theodore N. MIKE RIZZO

PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Rizzo was the first and most significant hire made by the Lerner family after assuming control of the Nationals franchise in July of 2006. Brought on first as Assistant General Manager, Rizzo's arrival in The District signaled a renewed emphasis on amateur talent and building a successful organization from the bottom up.

Rizzo was promoted to President of Baseball Operations and General Manager on Aug. 1, 2013, continuing his swift ascension within the organization and reflecting his strong working relationship with the Lerner Family.

Rizzo had served the organization as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager for the previous two-plus years (since Oct. 19, 2010). Rizzo, who is also a member of the Board of Directors at the Nationals' Youth Baseball Academy, was appointed Senior Vice President and General Manager on Aug. 20, 2009, and has acted as the team's General Manager since earlier that year.

Under Rizzo's leadership, the Nationals have transformed into one of Major League Baseball's perennially elite clubs, earning division championships along with the National League's best record in two of the past four seasons. In that span, during which the Nationals have posted the third best record (363-285) in MLB, Washington has averaged nearly seven more wins per season than its divisional opponents, posting a .560 winning percentage -- .042 points higher than the next closest NL East team (Atlanta, .518).

His efforts have not only earned him a reputation as one of the league's top architects, but hardware as well. He was named the 2012 MLB Executive of the Year by the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association, and the Pitch and Hit Club of Chicago, which followed 2011 Man of the Year honors from the Lido Civic Club of Washington, D.C. In May 2012, Rizzo was the featured guest and detailed much of his personal history, as well as the Nationals' rise, in what The Washington Post called "a captivating hour" speaking at the National Press Club.

Utilizing his systematic approach – making moves he feels will better the club for the immediate future, as well as the long-term – Rizzo has guided the Nationals to solidify their Major League team, as well as the impeccable farm system that feeds it.

On the heels of the three most successful seasons in Nationals history (2012, 2013 & 2014), the Nationals posted a fourth consecutive winning season in 2015, and bore witness to the emergence of several young talents for the Nationals, but none more impactful than Bryce Harper. The Nationals' talented right fielder, a No. 1-overall selection by Rizzo in the 2010 First-Year Player Draft, fully realized the potential his immense talent had always signaled. The result was another historic season for Harper who earned the National League MVP, the NL Hank Aaron Award, a Silver Slugger, and a litany of other honors.

Rizzo's addition of former Cy Young Award winner Max Scherzer in late January, 2015, delivered immediate dividends as Scherzer was one of the game's most dominant pitchers in his first year in the District, including not one but two historic, no-hit performances (June 20 vs. PIT and Oct. 3 at NYM).

RIZZO, MIKE

The 2015 team was also largely comprised of many of the players Rizzo put together that led the Nationals to the Postseason in 2014, a 96-win team that featured two Silver Slugger Award winners (Ian Desmond and Anthony Rendon) as well as three starting pitchers who earned Cy Young votes (Jordan Zimmermann, Doug Fister and Stephen Strasburg).

Washington's Minor League system is coming off another year in which several of the team's top prospects flourished. Ascending up Baseball America's organizational rankings for the third consecutive year, the Nationals were rated as the fifth-best system entering the 2016 season. Right-hander Lucas Giolito (No. 16 overall selection in the 2012 First-Year Player Draft), who is widely considered one of the best prospects in MLB, has garnered a consensus as the best right-handed pitching prospect in the game. Additionally, the Nationals are one of only two teams with two players in the top 10 of Baseball America's Top 100 prospects, with Giolito at No. 5 and shortstop Trea Turner coming in at No. 9.

While scouting and player development have been hallmarks of Rizzo's approach, so too have been shrewd trades. Whether the deals have been to help build up the farm system, or to utilize some of that prospective talent to yield significant Major League contributors, Rizzo has proven himself a deft dealmaker.

Right-hander Trevor Gott and outfielder Ben Revere are new Nationals acquired in deals, and the acquisition of Turner and right-handed pitcher Joe Ross, both considered top prospects, from the San Diego Padres in a three-team trade that sent outfielder Steven Souza Jr. to the Tampa Bay Rays in Dec. 2015, has been widely heralded. Turner and Ross look poised to be integral Major League players for Washington for years to come.

Prior to the 2012 season, it was All-Star left-hander Gio Gonzalez who came from Oakland in a six-player deal that included a quartet of homegrown prospects. As the team prepared for the 2014 campaign, Rizzo utilized more of the Nationals' stockpile of young talent to add right-handed starter Doug Fister, and left-handed reliever Jerry Blevins. And when there was an infield need at the 2014 non-waiver trade deadline, Rizzo added Asdrubal Cabrera – utilizing prospect Zach Walters in the exchange with Cleveland. Walters was acquired in a 2011 trade with the Arizona Diamondbacks for right-hander Jason Marquis.

They join Wilson Ramos, Denard Span, Kurt Suzuki, Michael Morse, Blake Treinen, Jonathan Papelbon and Sean Burnett as just some of the notable contributors Rizzo has brought in via trade.

Over the course of Rizzo's tenure with the Nationals, there have been several seminal moments. Here are just a few:

- On December 5, 2010, Rizzo signed right fielder Jayson Werth to a seven-year contract that immediately changed the perception of the Nationals, especially within the industry. Little more than a year later, Rizzo was instrumental in signing franchise cornerstone, Ryan Zimmerman, to a six-year contract extension.
- In November of 2009, Rizzo convinced Davey Johnson to sign on as Senior Advisor and help revamp the Nationals' on-field operations. In June of 2011, Rizzo appointed him field manager and Johnson stewarded the team to its first playoff appearance and through the 2013 season.
- From 2009-2012 Rizzo's Nationals won at least 10 more games than the season prior: 59 wins in 2009, 69 in '10, 80 in '11, 98 in '12. The last team to do this was the Boston Red Sox from 1906-09, making the Nationals the first team in over 100 years to complete such a feat without the benefit of an artificially deflated win total associated with a work stoppage.

- Solidifying arguably the best rotation on the Major Leagues, Rizzo and the Lerner Family signed 2013 American League Cy Young Award winner, right-handed pitcher Max Scherzer to a seven-year contract and introduced him to D.C. on Jan. 21, 2015.

- On Nov. 3, 2015, Rizzo and the Lerner Family announced Dusty Baker as the organization's sixth field manager, bringing one of the most successful managers in MLB history to lead the team.

Rizzo's impact on the organization has been wide-ranging and was felt immediately. The Nationals' 2007 First-Year Player Draft -- Rizzo's first with the organization -- was rated as the best in baseball by Baseball America. In the spring of 2008 as a newly appointed General Manager, Rizzo steadied the Nationals' operation in the Dominican Republic, moving their complex to Boca Chica. The team's Dominican operations have grown exponentially since that time.

Rizzo joined the Nationals after seven seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks, primarily as Director of Scouting, where he helped transform the Diamondbacks farm system with exceptionally successful drafts. Following the 2005 campaign Rizzo was promoted to Vice President of Scouting Operations. That same year, the Diamondbacks were named Topps' Organization of the Year.

Rizzo earned a World Series ring with Arizona in 2001, and the organization brought an astounding number of homegrown players through to the Major Leagues during his tenure. Brandon Webb (2006 Cy Young Award winner), Carlos Gonzalez, Chad Tracy, Justin Upton, Stephen Drew, Dan Uggla, Micah Owings, Tony Pena, Mark Reynolds, Conor Jackson, Miguel Montero, Chris Snyder, Carlos Quentin, Max Scherzer and Brett Anderson were all signed by Arizona under Rizzo's watch.

Rizzo, who is entering his 34th season of pro ball, joined the Diamondbacks in 1998. He previously enjoyed stints with the Boston Red Sox (1992-1998, area supervisor, international scout and major league advance scout) and the Chicago White Sox (1986-1992, Midwest and Southeast territorial scout). While with the White Sox, Rizzo signed 2014 Hall of Fame inductee and two-time American League MVP Frank Thomas.

Raised in Chicago, Rizzo is a third-generation scout. He learned the game from his father, Phillip, who is currently a Senior Advisor with the Nationals, and his grandfather, Vito, who was a semipro player before founding the family business: scouting.

Rizzo spent four seasons as a minor league infielder in the Angels organization. Upon retiring as a player, he served as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois while earning a Bachelor of Arts in Communications.

BOB MILLER
VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Miller is entering his second season with the Nationals after spending the previous nine years in a similar role with the Cincinnati Reds. Miller joined the Nationals on Nov. 3, 2014 and assists in all facets of baseball operations, including arbitration cases, contract negotiations, rules, player evaluations and departmental budgeting.

Beginning his 34th season in professional baseball, Miller's addition in Washington reunited him with Nationals President of Baseball Operations and GM Mike Rizzo for the first time since the two worked together for seven years with the Arizona Diamondbacks. There they helped build the 2001 World Series championship team, and take Arizona's Minor League system from No. 29 (as ranked by Baseball America) to No. 1 in five years.

Miller, who initially joined the Reds in Feb., 2006, as Director of Baseball Administration under then-GM Wayne Krivsky, quickly moved through the ranks in Cincinnati. He was promoted to Assistant General Manager in June of 2006 and in Dec., 2006, was named Vice President and Assistant GM. During his time with the Reds, the team improved from a sub-.500 club to win two division championships and earn three playoff appearances. In 2012, the Reds were also named Baseball America's Organization of the Year.

Miller was also instrumental in the Reds signing Cuban pitchers Aroldis Chapman (2010) and Raisel Iglesias (2014).

Prior to joining the Reds, Miller spent seven seasons with the Diamondbacks -- first as Assistant Director of Scouting, then Director of Baseball Operations, and the final three as Assistant General Manager, where he oversaw the organization's Minor League player development from 2004-05. In 2005, the Diamondbacks were named TOPPS' Minor League Organization of the Year.

Miller joined the Diamondbacks with 16 years of Minor League experience on his resume, including 14 years at the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, and stops as Vice President of Baseball Operations in the independent Texas-Louisiana League office, along with serving as executive GM of that league's Amarillo Dillas club.

Miller, 52, graduated from the University of South Florida with a degree in finance.

He took on a greater role within baseball operations during the 2015 season, assisting President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Mike Rizzo with budgeting and other financial matters.

Prior to joining the Nationals, Towne was Director of Construction and Development Accounting for Lerner Enterprises, a role he took after working for Forrester Construction as their Assistant Controller. Towne started with Forrester Construction shortly after relocating from Maine, where he'd spent the previous 28 years of his life.

Doug Harris begins his seventh season with the Nationals, joining the organization on Oct. 16, 2009 after being appointed as the Director of Player Development. He shifted into his current role following the 2015 season, continuing his ascension in the organization. Harris brings with him more than 25 years of baseball experience as a player, amateur scout and professional scout, and he has overseen the Nationals' farm system for the previous six seasons. With the additional responsibility of leading the organization's Pro Scouting efforts, Harris' role in the organization has expanded exponentially and significantly in a short amount of time – reflecting his profound impact.

Harris has been integral in the development of the Nationals' amateur players. Harris helped talents such as Bryce Harper, Anthony Rendon, Tyler Moore, Steven Souza Jr. and Michael A. Taylor see their development through to the Major Leagues.

Prior to joining the Nationals, Harris spent the 2009 season as a Major League scout and advance scout with the Cleveland Indians, but his lone season with the Indians came at the conclusion of 13 years with the Texas Rangers in various scouting capacities. Among the players Harris helped draft and sign during his time with the Rangers is former Major League outfielder Kevin Mench.

A right-handed pitcher, Harris was selected in the fourth round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft by Kansas City and played seven professional seasons with three organizations, including the Royals, Baltimore Orioles and Florida Marlins. The Royals named Harris as the organization's 1991 Player of the Year after he posted a 2.39 ERA across Low and High Class-A.

Harris, attended James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Va., and currently resides in Carlisle, Pa., with his wife, Lisa, and three daughters: Alex, Sydney and Jordyn.

KRIS KLINE

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER & VICE PRESIDENT, SCOUTING OPERATIONS

Kris Kline enters his third season as Assistant General Manager and Vice President of Scouting Operations after being promoted to that spot on Nov. 21, 2013. Kline spent the previous four seasons as the Nationals' Director of Scouting, a position to which he was appointed to on Oct. 16, 2009.

A scout for over 20 years, Kline has been with the Nationals since the fall of 2006. He spent his first three seasons in Washington first as a Special Assignment Scout, then as the Western Crosschecker.

Under his watch as the Director of Scouting, the Nationals have selected top prospects such as Bryce Harper, Anthony Rendon, Brian Goodwin, Alex Meyer, Lucas Giolito and Erik Fedde in the first round of the First-Year Player Draft. The organization has also mined the later rounds for talents such as A.J. Cole, Aaron Barrett, Robbie Ray, Taylor Hill, Sammy Solis, Matt Grace and Billy Burns.

During his time in Arizona, Kline was part of a scouting team that brought an astounding 68 players through the system to the Major Leagues.

Among the many players Kline has had a hand in drafting and signing are former Cy Young winner Brandon Webb, a Diamondbacks product, and right-hander John Lackey, who remains one of the youngest pitchers in history to win Game 7 of the World Series.

BOB BOONE

VICE PRESIDENT & SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

He shifted into his current role as Vice President & Senior Advisor to the GM following the 2015 season, after serving as Assistant General Manager & Vice President, Player Development from 2006-2013, and Vice President of Player Personnel from 2014-2015.

Boone has played a vital role in all of the Nationals' Major League evaluations, both internal and external, and helped "recruit" a new wave of talent to join the Nationals' scouting and player development ranks. His presence has also helped secure Player Development Contracts with Syracuse (Triple-A International League) and Hagerstown (Single-A South Atlantic League), thus compacting Washington's player-development footprint.

One of the premier catchers of his generation, Boone was named to four All-Star teams ('76, '78-79, '83) and won seven Rawlings Gold Gloves ('78-79, '82, '86-89) during his 19-year career. Only Ivan Rodriguez (13) and Johnny Bench (10) have won more Gold Gloves for catching.

Selected by the Phillies as a third baseman out of Stanford University—where he graduated with a degree in psychology—Boone spent the first 10 years of his Major League career with Philadelphia (1972-81), which won four division titles and a World Series Championship in 1980. From there, Boone played for Anaheim (1982-88) and Kansas City (1989-90). Upon retirement, he held the Major League record for games caught in a career (2225, later broken by Carlton Fisk) and most seasons (15) catching at least 100 games.

In October of 1994, Boone was named manager of the Kansas City Royals, a position he held until July of 1997. Following his tenure with Kansas City, Boone joined Cincinnati as a special assistant, before serving as manager of the Reds from 2001 until July of 2003.

Boone was born on November 19, 1947 in San Diego, CA and resides in San Marcos, CA with his wife, Sue. Two of their sons played in the big leagues and achieved All-Star status: Bret (three-time All-Star, retired) and Aaron (2003 NL All-Star, retired). Their youngest son, Matt, played six seasons of pro ball after being drafted by the Mariners in the third round of the 1997 First-Year Player Draft.

His father, the late Ray Boone, was an All-Star infielder during his 13-year career in the big leagues (1948-60). Bob's brother, Rodney, played in the Kansas City and Houston farm systems from 1972-75. The Boones are one of only four three-generation baseball families, along with the Bells (Gus, Buddy and David), the Colemans (Joe, Joe and Casey) and the Hairstons (Sam, Jerry Sr. and Jerry Jr.).

Until his departure in Feb. 2008, Harolyn served as Bowden's Executive Assistant, a role unexpectedly expanded when a surprise staff shake-up resulted in trial-by-fire job training. Mike Rizzo, who assumed the reigns as GM after Bowden's departure, credits Cardozo with maintaining an orderly and professional transition.

Now one of Rizzo's closest aides, Cardozo was promoted in 2011 to Special Assistant to the GM, Major League Operations, a role unique in the organization.

RESUME

Davey Lopes returns to the Nationals as the team's first base coach, a post he held for Washington during the 2006 season…The 2016 season will mark the 30th as a Major League coach for Lopes, who spent the past five seasons in the same position for the Los Angeles Dodgers…A highly-regarded baserunning instructor, Lopes was instrumental in improving the Dodgers' running game… Since 2011, a Dodger has ranked in the top 10 in stolen bases three times, and the 2011 Dodgers posted a 75.9 stolen base percentage, the team's second-best mark since moving to L.A. in 1958…Prior to joining the Dodgers, Lopes spent four seasons (2007-10) as the first base coach and outfield/baserunning instructor for the Philadelphia Phillies, appearing in the postseason all four years and winning a World Series ring in 2008…While with Philadelphia, Lopes coached current Nationals outfielder Jayson Werth, helping him achieve back-to-back 20-stolen-base seasons (2008, 2009) and an 88 percent (60-for-68) stolen base percentage…In each of his four seasons the Phillies posted the best stolen base percentage in MLB, including the best mark in MLB history in 2007 (87.9 %)…In 2008, the Phillies also led the NL and tied for the MLB lead with 36 outfield assists…Lopes served previously as the first base coach in San Diego (1995-1999 and 2003-2005), Baltimore (1992-1994) and Texas (1988-1991), and skippered the Milwaukee Brewers from 2000-02.

PLAYING CAREER

A 16-year Major Leaguer, Lopes' career included stops in Los Angeles (1972-81), Oakland (1982-84), Chicago (1984-86, Cubs) and Houston (1986-87)... Lopes appeared in four World Series, including a World Series Championship in 1981, as well as four consecutive All-Star Games (1978-81)…A second-round selection of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1968, Lopes spent the first 10 years of his MLB career with LA, and stole a then-MLB-record 38 consecutive bases without a caught stealing in 1975 (Vince Coleman broke that record in 1989)… Lopes led the NL in stolen bases in 1975 (77) and 1976 (63) and ranks second all-time in Dodger history (behind Maury Wills, 490) with 413 stolen bases… Lopes stole 10 bases in the 1981 postseason, and in Game 4 of the World Series, was 2-for-5, stole two bases, scored two runs and had two RBI, including the game-winning RBI in an 8-7 victory over the New York Yankees… The 1978 NL Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner at second base, Lopes remains the Dodgers' all-time home run leader for second basemen (98).

PERSONAL

David Earl Lopes resides in San Diego, Calif., and he has a daughter, Vanessa… Lopes was All-State in baseball and basketball while attending LaSalle Academy (RI), and is a 1969 graduate of Washburn University (KS) where he earned NAIA All-American honors in baseball and basketball.

MEDICAL TEAM

NATIONALS MEDICAL TEAM

Dr. Keith Pyne

Dr. Robin West

Harvey Sharman

Dennis Cullen, MD

Bruce Thomas, MD

DR. KEITH PYNE — Chairman, Medical Services Advisory Board

Pyne, head of Keith E. Pyne, D.C. PLLC in New York City, specializes in working with specific professional sports injuries. His treatment concentrates on the neuromuscular structural integration that resolves injuries and biomechanical discrepancies by addressing the problem in the body's kinetic chain. Pyne, who has been consulting for the Nationals since 2012, has consulted with and treated over 1,300 professional athletes across all major sports (including: baseball, basketball, football, hockey, boxing, golf, and track & field).

DR. ROBIN WEST — Lead Team Physician

West, a board-certified orthopedics and sports medicine surgeon, joined INOVA in July 2014 as the Medical Director of the Sports Medicine Institute at INOVA, where she oversees the program's clinical, strategic, administrative and academic affairs. West has a special interest in the prevention and management of injuries. She has served previously as the assistant team physician for the Pittsburgh Steelers, as the head team physician for the Carnegie Mellon University athletic department, and as the head team physician for the University of Pittsburgh men's basketball, wrestling, gymnastics, and swimming and diving programs. A Southern California native, West joined INOVA after more than 11 years of clinical experience as an associate professor at the University of Pittsburgh.

HARVEY SHARMAN — Executive Director, Medical Services

Sharman, a physiotherapist, joins the Nationals after 15 years with the Leeds United Football Club in the UK, the previous eight as the organization's Director of Sports Medicine/Science. Sharman began with Leeds as an assistant physiotherapist, but evolved into the head of the organization's medical department. During this time, Sharman focused on movement dysfunction, and, subsequently, the development of injury-prevention strategies. Griffith Stadium, located in Northwest D.C., was the home of the American League Washington Senators from 1911-1961. It was host to World Series Games in 1924, 1925 and 1933 as well as two Major League Baseball All-Star Games (1937, 1956). BASEBALL RETURNS TO THE NATION'S CAPITAL - 2004

On Wednesday, Sept. 29, 2004, Major League Baseball selected the Washington, D.C. proposal as its choice for relocation of the Montreal Expos. Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig made the announcement. Relocation of the club was subject to certain contingencies, including a formal vote of ownership at the next owners' meeting in November and passage of legislation by the District of Columbia Council to provide for financing and construction of a ballpark on the Anacostia River waterfront in Southeast Washington. MLB also provided the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida the required notice of MLB's intent to move forward with relocating the team.

The D.C. agreement also included financing for the refurbishing of RFK Stadium, where the Washington, D.C. franchise played through the 2007 campaign.

"Washington, D.C., as our nation's capital, is one of the world's most important cities and Major League Baseball is gratified at the skill and perseverance shown by (then) Mayor Anthony Williams throughout this long process," Selig said. "There has been tremendous growth in the Washington, D.C. area over the last 33 years and we in Major League Baseball believe that baseball will be welcomed there and will be a great success."

Selig also said: "I would like to thank the representatives who worked on behalf of Northern Virginia, Norfolk, VA, Las Vegas, Portland, OR, Monterrey, Mexico and others for devoting so much time and energy in their attempts to bring a Major League Baseball team to their communities."

At the time, Washington, D.C. was the largest market in the country in terms of population (5.4 million) and television market size (eighth) without a Major League Baseball team.

Even though Washington, D.C. baseball has a long history with the American League, the team plays in the National League East Division, which in fact marks a return to its baseball roots. The first Washington, D.C. franchise joined the National League in 1886 and was part of the NL, except for a two-year hiatus in 1890-91, until the National League contracted Washington and three other franchises in 1900.

But a year later, Ban Johnson organized the American League and included Washington, D.C. as one of its charter franchises. Although the original Senators were mostly mediocre throughout their history, they fielded one of the game's greatest all-time pitchers, Walter "Big Train" Johnson, and made three trips to the World Series, winning it in 1924 in a seven-game series against the New York Giants. In 1925, the Senators lost in seven games to Pittsburgh and lost in five games to the Giants in 1933.

The second incarnation of the Senators came in 1961 in the form of an expansion team. Like its predecessor, the Senators often finished in the second division and had only one winning season in their 11-year history. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. was without Major League Baseball until 2005.

THE HISTORY OF BASEBALL IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

When the first professional baseball games were played in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., the enduring symbol of freedom in America - the Statue of Liberty - was still two years away from being dedicated. There were 38 states in the Union and what would become the State of Oklahoma had yet to be settled. More than seven decades had passed since Washington, D.C. became the capital of the United States and baseball was quickly evolving into the National Pastime.

A Washington team was admitted to the National League in 1885 and played during the League's 10th professional season in 1886. Washington played 12 years in the National League - 1886-89 and 1892-99 - but was part of a four-team contraction in 1900 as the National League went from 12 franchises to eight.

Later that same year, former Western League president Ban Johnson was organizing a second Major League to compete with the National League and announced plans to include a franchise in the nation's capital. The new League was called the American League and began play in 1901.

This Washington franchise was awarded to James Manning and Detroit businessman Fred Postal. Manning retired later that year and Tom Loftus replaced him as the club's primary executive. The Senators finished in sixth place in 1901 with a 61-72 mark and would eventually be sold to an ownership group including Thomas C. Noyes, Benjamin Minor and Harry Rapley, among others.

The first of two individual tragedies struck the organization in only its third season as the Senators lost a key figure when future Hall of Fame outfielder Ed Delahanty was tragically killed in July, 1903, when he was swept over Niagara Falls. Delahanty was the reigning American League batting champion and his sudden death took its toll on the team as the Senators finished the campaign with a 43-94 mark.

Effective for the 1905 campaign, the team name was changed to Nationals. Newspaper accounts used the names Senators and Nationals interchangeably for the next five decades.

While it took 12 years before the Nationals finished a season with a winning record, the signing of 20 year-old pitcher Walter Johnson in 1907 would signify a key moment in the franchise's history. Under first-year manager Clark Griffith, the 1912 Washington club posted a 91-61 mark and ended up in second place, 14 games behind the eventual World Champion Boston Red Sox.

Johnson appeared in a remarkable 50 games that year - 37 as a starter - and went 33-12 with a league-leading 1.39 ERA and 303 strikeouts. The following year he was even better as he led the Nationals to their second consecutive 90-win season. The "Big Train" went 36-7 with 11 shutouts and a 1.14 ERA, which still stands today as one of the lowest ERAs by a starting pitcher in a single season.

In 1912, 40 year-old team president Thomas C. Noyes fell ill to pneumonia and eventually succumbed to the disease. Noyes had been instrumental in the franchise's improvements since he took over and was replaced as team president by Minor, a prominent Washington attorney. Minor, unable to devote the necessary time to the club, subsequently sold the controlling interest to Griffith and Philadelphia businessman William Richardson in 1919.

Following a 75-78 season in 1923, Griffith made a controversial decision by appointing 27 year-old second baseman Stanley "Bucky" Harris as field manager. Harris was the fifth manager in the previous five seasons for the Nationals, but he guided one of the great reversals in baseball history as the Nationals won more games in 1924 than ever before, 92, and captured their first American League pennant.

In the 1924 World Series, the Nationals took on famed manager John McGraw and the New York Giants. The Series was one of the closest in history as four games were decided by a single run, including the deciding Game Seven. On the strength of Walter Johnson's four innings of relief pitching - on two days' rest - and the Series clinching hit by Earl McNeeley in the bottom of the 12th inning, the Nationals won their first and only World Series Championship.

United States President Calvin Coolidge, who threw out the ceremonial first pitch on three occasions during the Series, paid tribute to the hometown victors immediately following the triumph:

"I have only the heartiest praise to bestow upon the individual players of both teams. Naturally, in Washington, we were pleased to see Walter Johnson finish the final game, pitching for our home team. Everybody was pleased to see him come back at the close of the last game. The three contests I witnessed maintained throughout a high degree of skill, and every evidence of high-class sportsmanship which will bring to every observer an increased respect and confidence in our national game."

The following year, Harris once again led the Nationals to a record regular season finish as they posted 96 wins and clinched a second-straight American League pennant. Their second trip to the World Series was just as close but this time they came up short in a seven-game series to the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Senators had a 7-6 lead entering the bottom of the eighth in Game Seven, but could not hold it as the Pirates scored three runs in the inning off Johnson and held on to clinch the Series victory.

Johnson concluded his amazing 21-year playing career with the Nationals in 1927 with career totals of 417-279, a 2.36 ERA, 3,508 strikeouts and a big league-record 110 shutouts. He was among the first class of inductees into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 1936.

The "Big Train" was not gone from the Washington scene long, as Griffith brought him back to replace Harris as the Nationals' manager in 1929. Despite posting three straight 90-win seasons, Johnson was removed from his post after the 1932 season and replaced by Joe Cronin, the team's 26-year-old shortstop.

Cronin's first season with the Nationals produced the franchise's best regular season mark ever at 99-53 and its third American League pennant. Washington again faced the New York Giants in the Fall Classic but fell in five games to a team led by the pitching of Carl Hubbell (20 IP, 0 ER) and the hitting of Mel Ott, who clinched the Series for New York with a 10th-inning homer in Game Five.

The Nationals franchise then fell on hard times. Washington won just 66 games in '34 and the team posted only two more winning seasons over the next 25 years. The team name was officially changed to Senators for the '56 campaign.

Calvin Griffith, who became team president after his father's death in 1955, was granted permission to seek relocation in Sept. 1960, and an announcement was made in Oct. 1960 that the Senators were being moved to Minneapolis, MN.

At that time, the American League announced plans to expand by two teams for the 1961 season. One team would be located in Los Angeles and the other in Washington, D.C.

The expansion Senators fared no better than their predecessors, as they lost at least 100 games in each of their first four seasons. In 1964, the Senators acquired five players in a deal with the Los Angeles Dodgers for pitcher Claude Osteen. One of those five players was slugging outfielder and the 1960 National League Rookie of the Year, Frank Howard.

An imposing presence at 6-7, 250 lbs., Howard brought a much-needed offensive punch to the Senators lineup and the Senators win total increased in each of his first three seasons in Washington. After struggling again in 1968, new team president Robert Short brought in Hall of Fame outfielder Ted Williams as the new manager of the Senators.

Howard and his teammates responded to the "Splendid Splinter" during his rookie managerial campaign as Washington's win total improved 21 games to 86 in 1969. It was also Howard's best year in the Majors, as he batted .296 with 48 home runs, 111 RBI and 111 runs scored and finished fourth in the balloting for American League Most Valuable Player.

Unfortunately, the team was unable to build upon their success in '69. The Senators lost 92 games in '70 and 96 in '71. On Sept. 21, 1971, owners approved the transfer of the Senators to Arlington, TX, where the franchise became the Texas Rangers.

After 71 years in the American League and nearly 100 since the debut of professional baseball in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., hosted its "final" regular season game on Sept. 30, 1971 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. was without Major League Baseball until 2005.

THE CATCH

Who made the most famous catch in the history of the World Series? Some might reference Willie Mays' over-the-shoulder catch in '54, but when considering intrigue, it is tough to top Sam Rice's catch in Game 3 of the 1925 World Series against the Pirates.

On Oct. 10, 1925, Rice (HOF '63) was patrolling Griffith Stadium's right field for the AL Nationals. In the eighth inning, Rice made a dynamic catch of a would-be Earl Smith game-tying home run. Upon making the catch, Rice toppled over the fence and disappeared from sight. When Rice reappeared and showed the ball, umpires ruled that the catch had been made on the field of play and that Smith was out.

After the game, Rice was coy about his heroic catch. He later turned down numerous requests for interviews, some for money. Rice never disclosed any information about the catch. Instead, he wrote a letter that was opened only after his death in 1974. The contents of the letter said, "At no time did I lose possession of the ball." Washington eventually lost the Series, however, in seven games.

By the end of the 2014 campaign, Washington built a 17.0 game lead over the rest of the NL East, MLB's largest since the 100-win Angels won the AL West by 21.0 games over TEX in 2008 and the largest in the 81-year history (1901 - pres.) of modern baseball in D.C.
September 28, 2014	In Washington's season-ending 1-0 home win over the Marlins, RHP Jordan Zimmermann walks one and strikes out 10 while tossing not only the first no-hitter in Nationals history, but the first tossed in the nation's capital since AL Nationals RHP Bobby Burke turned the trick on Aug. 31, 1931 vs. BOS. OF Steven Souza Jr.'s miraculous diving catch on deep line drive to left field by MIA's Christian Yelich secured Zimmermann's no-hitter. In same game, OF Denard Span's set a new Nationals single-season mark with his 184th hit, a third-inning double.
October 4, 2014	In Game 2 of the National League Division Series, the Giants topped the Nationals, 2-1, in 18 innings. October 7, 2014	The Nationals are eliminated from MLB's postseason after falling to the Giants, 3-2, in Game 4 of the NLDS.
January 21, 2015	The Nationals sign RHP Max Scherzer to a historic seven-year contract.
May 6-9, 2015	RF Bryce Harper clubs six home runs in a span of three games, culminating in his third career walk-off home run on May 9 vs. ATL. On May 7 vs. MIA, Harper (22 years, 202 days) became the 10th-youngest player in MLB history to hit three home runs in a game. He is only the fifth player since 1920 (when RBI became a statistic) to hit at least six home runs and record at least 12 RBI over a span of three games.
June 20, 2015	RHP Max Scherzer tossed his first career no-hitter and the second in Washington Nationals history. He was perfect through 8.2 innings before a 2-2 slider hit PIT pinch hitter Jose Tabata on the left elbow. Scherzer finished the day with 10 strikeouts as the Nationals topped the Pirates, 6-0.
September 2, 2015	With two home runs against STL, 1B Ryan Zimmerman became the first player in Nationals history (2005-present) to reach the 200 home run mark exclusively with the Nationals. He joined Vladimir Guerrero (234), Andre Dawson (225), Gary Carter (220) and Tim Wallach (204) as the only players in Montreal/Washington history to reach 200 home runs.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

September 4, 2015 ..... Pinch hitter Michael A. Taylor clubs the first pinch-hit, walk-off home run in Washington Nationals history, a three-run homer to center field as the Nationals topped ATL, 5-2. It was the first walk-off home run and first pinch-hit home run of Taylor's career.

October 3, 2015 ..... With the 2015 season coming to a close, and once again after carrying a no-hitter through 7.1 innings in his previous outing, Max Scherzer took the hill for the final start of his inaugural season in Washington, D.C., vs. the NYM. In the second game of a doubleheader, Scherzer turned in one of the most dominant pitching performances in Major League history. Scherzer joined Johnny Vander Meer (1938), Allie Reynolds (1951), Virgil Trucks (1952), Nolan Ryan (1973) and Roy Halladay (2010), becoming just the sixth pitcher in MLB history to throw two no-hitters in the same season (including the postseason). Just one baserunner, catcher Kevin Plawecki, was able to reach base, due to a fielding error by third baseman Yunel Escobar. Scherzer struck out a Nationals record (2005-present) and new career-best 17 batters, including a franchise record (Nationals/Expos) nine consecutive batters from the sixth to the ninth inning. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Scherzer's 17 strikeouts tied Nolan Ryan (7/15/73 vs. DET) for the MLB record for strikeouts in a no-hitter.

October 5, 2015 ..... Manager Matt Williams relieved of his duties and the coaching staff was informed that their contracts will not be renewed.

November 3, 2015 ..... Dusty Baker is named the sixth full-time manager of the Washington Nationals.

January 6, 2016 ..... INF Daniel Murphy is signed to a three-year contract.

NAME GAME

At a ceremony held Nov. 22, 2004 in the historical Main Hall at Union Station, (then) team president Tony Tavares announced the new Washington MLB franchise will be named the Washington Nationals and the color scheme would consist of red, white and blue.

The Nationals moniker had previously served two other Washington baseball franchises. A team called the Nationals first played in the District during the 1870s and 1880s, and a second American League team played at Griffith Stadium from 1901 until 1956. Owner Calvin Griffith then officially changed Washington's name to Senators for the 1957 season.

The name was selected based on an evaluation of a myriad of factors, including data collected through local focus groups and other forms of research.

WASHINGTON, D.C. BALLPARKS

Pro baseball teams were formed in our nation's capital beginning in the early 1870s and those franchises played their games in ballparks commonly known as Swampoodle Grounds, Capitol Grounds and Boundary Field.

In 1892, the Washington Senators joined the expanding National League and began playing their home games at a site that would host professional baseball games into the early 1960s. From 1892-99, the Senators played at National Park, which had a seating capacity of approximately 6,500. Although never finishing above sixth place, the team drew fairly well, including more than 200,000 fans in 1896.

When the National League contracted from 12 franchises to eight following the 1899 season, the team was disbanded. However, it would only be two seasons before a professional team occupied that site again.

During those two years, former Western League president Ban Johnson was working to put together a second Major League to rival the NL. In 1901, the American League began play with eight franchises, including the Washington Nationals.

This franchise would play its home games on the same site as the previous National League Washington team, but the ballpark was appropriately renamed American League Base Ball Park and the capacity was expanded to nearly 10,000.

On March 17, 1911, tragedy struck the American League Base Ball Park. The all-wooden ballpark and four surrounding buildings were completely destroyed by a fire started by a plumber's blow lamp and a strong wind. American League Base Ball Park could not be saved as plumbers working on the park's drain pipes had shut off the water supply and by the time fire fighters arrived, the grand stand and bleachers were engulfed in flames. At the time, the loss of the ballpark was estimated at $20,000.

Thomas C. Noyes, president of the Washington franchise, gained approval from the Board of Directors to announce that work would begin immediately on a new ballpark with a steel grandstand. With the players at Spring Training and Opening Day less than a month away, crews worked tirelessly to get the ballpark ready for the home opener.

By Opening Day 1911, the grandstands were sufficiently erected for the Nationals to host the Boston Red Sox with President William Howard Taft in attendance. The work on the ballpark continued when the team was on the road and was completed on July 24, 1911 at a final cost of approximately $100,000. Seating capacity was more than 27,000, including a presidential box near the first base dugout.

In 1920, the American League Base Ball Park was renamed Griffith Stadium in recognition of the franchise's owner and president, Clark Griffith. The only major alteration to the ballpark was also made in 1920 as the double-decked stands were extended from the bases to the foul poles.

During the late-1930s and 1940s, Griffith Stadium had another part-time tenant - the famed Homestead Grays of the Negro Leagues. Originally from Pennsylvania, the Grays played half of their games at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh and half at Griffith Stadium when the Washington franchise was on the road. Some of the most revered players in Negro League history played for the Grays, including Josh Gibson, Buck Leonard, Cool Papa Bell and Sam Bankhead, as they won nine Negro League championships.

Griffith Stadium, which also hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1937 and 1956 and three World Series in 1924, 1925 and 1933, remained the home of the Washington franchise until it was moved to Minneapolis following the 1960 season.

The expansion Washington Senators played their inaugural season at Griffith Stadium in 1961 before moving into District of Columbia Stadium for the 1962 season.

After having been the site of professional baseball in Washington, DC, since 1892, the final game at Griffith Stadium was played on Sept. 21, 1961 as the Senators fell to Minnesota, 4-3, before a crowd of 1,498 fans. Griffith Stadium was demolished in 1965 and is now utilized by Howard University. Nearly 1,000 of the original seats from Griffith Stadium were moved to a Spring Training facility near Orlando, Fla., Tinker Field.

A federally-owned stadium, District of Columbia Stadium was a new three-tiered, multi-purpose facility constructed near the Potomac River at a cost of approximately $24 million. The Senators signed a 10-year lease on September 29, 1961 with the D.C. Armory Board for the stadium, which had a seating capacity of 45,016.

On April 9, 1962, the Senators played their first regular season game at District of Columbia Stadium. A crowd of 42,143 - including President John F. Kennedy — saw Senators pitcher Bennie Daniels defeat the Detroit Tigers, 4-1. Interestingly enough, Daniels suffered the loss at both the final game at Ebbets Field in 1957 and the final game at Griffith Stadium in 1961.

Under the direction of the D.C. Armory Board, the stadium was officially renamed Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium on January 18, 1969.

The 1969 Major League Baseball All-Star Game was the fourth hosted by the Senators and the second at RFK Stadium (also first game in 1962). Despite the American League dropping a 9-3 decision to the National League, Washington fans saw future Hall of Famer Willie McCovey hit a pair of homers and hometown favorite Frank Howard hit one as well.

In 1971, the Senators played their final season at RFK Stadium before moving to Arlington, Texas. The final regular season Major League Baseball game was played at RFK on September 30, 1971. Washington hosted the New York Yankees before a crowd of just 14,460 in a game that was never finished. The Senators were holding on to a 7-5 lead with two outs in the top of the ninth inning when fans rushed the field. The umpiring crew could not clear the field and the game was forfeited to the Yankees, 9-0.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

RFK Stadium hosted 16 exhibition games involving Major League teams after the Senators moved in 1971. A portion of the proceeds from most of the games was donated to various charities. Attendance at the 16 contests averaged more than 27,600 per game. Following is a listing of those games:

On March 14, 2006, Washington, D.C. Mayor Anthony Williams, the D.C. Sports & Entertainment Commission and the Washington Nationals unveiled plans for a 41,000-seat state-of-the-art baseball stadium located in Southeast DC. Seven weeks later, on May 4, ground was officially broken on the ballpark site. Washington opended Nationals Park on March 30, 2008 with a 3-2 win over ATL, televised nationally on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball. President George W. Bush threw the ceremonial first pitch, then Ryan Zimmerman led the club to victory with a game-ending solo shot in the ninth inning.

CAPITAL PUNISHER

Frank Howard blasted 237 of his 382 career home runs during his seven-year tenure with the the Senators from 1965-71. No player representing Washington has hit more long balls (Roy Sievers is 2nd with 180).

"Hondo" came to D.C. on Dec. 4, 1964 via a seven-player trade with the Dodgers that also netted Ken McMullen, Phil Ortega, Dick Nen and Pete Richert in exchange for John Kennedy, Claude Osteen and $100,000.

A love affair between player and town began almost immediately, as teammates, media and fans alike marveled at Howard's tape-measure home runs, many of which taunted cavernous D.C. Stadium's dimensions.

Howard's 172 homer runs from 1967-70 were the most in MLB in that span, as Hall-of-Famers Harmon Killebrew and Willie McCovey tied for second with just 151.

Howard eventually represented the Senators in four Mid-Summer Classics and led the American League in home runs twice (44 in both 1968 and '70). "The Capital Punisher" also paced the AL in RBI (126) and walks (132) in 1970.

THE TRADITION OF OPENING DAY IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Each Major League Club has its own unique celebration to mark the opening of the Major League Baseball season, but Opening Day in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., was always a special and sometimes historic event. Washington, D.C.'s Opening Day tradition dates to April 14, 1910. William Howard Taft, the 27th President of the United States, attended the home opener of the Washington Senators against the Philadelphia Athletics. Numerous other government officials, including Vice President James Sherman, joined President Taft at the ballpark.

An overflow crowd of 12,000 fans—the largest baseball crowd in Washington at that time—gave President Taft a standing ovation as he made his way to his seats on the first-base side. Team president Thomas C. Noyes then took the two managers—Washington's Jimmy McAleer and Philadelphia's legendary Connie Mack—to meet the President.

Just prior to the start of the game, umpire Billy Evans walked over to President Taft's box and presented him with a new baseball. Evans instructed President Taft that he was to throw the ball from his seat in the stands to Senators pitcher Walter Johnson, who was standing at home plate, to officially commence the start of the American League championship season. After giving the ball briefly to First Lady Helen Taft, the President adjusted his gloves and made a good throw to Johnson, who immediately gave the ball to catcher Charles Street to have it secured in a safe place.

President Taft watched the entire game, a 3-0 Washington victory in which Johnson hurled a one-hit, complete-game shutout. After the game, Johnson sent the historic ball to the White House accompanied by a note to President Taft asking for his autograph on the ball. President Taft returned the ball after penning the following on it:

"For Walter Johnson, with the hope that he may continue to be as formidable as in yesterday's game. William H. Taft."

Although President Taft was the first to throw out a ceremonial first pitch, it was not the first time a President of the United States attended a Major League Baseball game. Benjamin Harrison, the 23rd U.S. President, is believed to be the first sitting President to attend a Major League game when he witnessed a NL game between Cincinnati and Washington in June 1892. That wasn't even the first interaction with a professional baseball team as nine years earlier President Chester A. Arthur welcomed the Cleveland franchise of the National League to the White House.

Having the President throw out the ceremonial first pitch at Washington's home opener was such an enormous success—not only in the nation's capital but around the country—that it led to the American League granting Washington permission to open the American League championship season one day before the rest of the League. This action was approved on December 13, 1927, in recognition of the U.S. President throwing out the ceremonial first pitch.

Including President Taft's precedent-setting throw in 1910, 12 different Presidents have attended a home opener of the Washington Senators a total of 46 times. The Senators posted a 23-23 mark in home openers with a President present.

President Taft (2-0) and Woodrow Wilson (3-0), the 28th U.S. President, were the only two to never see the Senators lose. The only U.S. Presidents never to see Washington win a home opener were Lyndon Johnson (0-3), Richard Nixon (0-2) and Barack Obama (0-1). Following is the breakdown of Washington's record on Opening Day, listed by President:

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES	WASHINGTON'S RECORD ON OPENING DAY
Woodrow Wilson (D)	3-0 (1.000)
William Howard Taft (R)	2-0 (1.000)
George W. Bush (R)	2-0 (1.000)
Calvin Coolidge (R)	3-1 (.750)
Warren Harding (R)	2-1 (.667)
Dwight Eisenhower (R)	4-3 (.571)
Franklin Roosevelt (D)	4-4 (.500)
Harry Truman (D)	3-4 (.429)
John F. Kennedy (D)	1-2 (.333)
Herbert Hoover (R)	1-3 (.250)
Barack Obama (D)	0-1 (.000)
Richard Nixon (R)	0-2 (.000)
Lyndon Johnson (D)	0-3 (.000)
TOTAL	25-24 (.510) | Democrats 11-14 (.440), Republicans 14-10 (.583)

Prior to the Senators move to Texas in 1972, each President since Taft was in attendance for a Washington Senators home opener at least once. Several Presidents had to miss on occasion, including President Taft in 1912 because of the sinking of the Titanic and President Wilson in 1918 and 1919 because of World War I.

Since 1972, the tradition of Presidents and Opening Day has continued in other Major League cities. The only President to never throw out a ceremonial first pitch at an Opening Day game was Jimmy Carter. President George W. Bush threw out the ceremonial first pitch at RFK Stadium on April 14, 2005 to usher the return of baseball to the nation's capital, then again to open Nationals Park on March 30, 2008. President Barack Obama continued the tradition on April 5, 2010, throwing out the first pitch prior to the Nationals' season opener vs. PHI.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

WASHINGTON, D.C. AND THE WORLD SERIES

Washington, D.C. has hosted three World Series, with the original Washington (AL) Nationals claiming the 1924 World Championship. Washington needed seven games to top the favored New York Giants, a club that was appearing in its eighth World Series in 14 seasons and was managed by John McGraw. The Nationals won despite Walter Johnson losing each of his first two starts. However, Washington won, 4-3, in 12 innings as Johnson came out of the 'pen to earn the win in Game 7. The 1924 World Series remains the second of only four World Series to be decided in extra innings of the decisive seventh game.

The Washington (AL) Nationals would go on to play in two more Fall Classics, losing both. As defending World Champions in 1925, the Nationals won 92 games and claimed another AL Pennant, but lost to Pittsburgh in seven games. The Pirates topped the Nationals, 9-7, in Game 7 as Walter Johnson squandered a 4-0 lead after the first inning and eventually suffered the loss. The New York Giants provided payback for the 1924 Series by claiming the 1933 World Series over the AL Nationals in five games.

POSTSEASON HISTORY (AL NATIONALS / EXPOS / NATIONALS)

1924 The AL Nationals claim their first of three AL pennants and lone World Championship. The AL Nationals finished the regular season with a 92-62 (.597) mark and a 2.0-game lead over the second-place Yankees (89-63). The AL Nationals won a memorable seven-game World Series over the heavily-favored New York Giants, who were competing in their eighth Fall Classic in 14 seasons. The series is best remembered for Game 7. The Giants led, 3-1, in the 8th, but Freddie Lindstrom's critical error on a routine grounder allowed the AL Nationals to send the game to extra innings. Washington won, 4-3, in 12 innings with Walter Johnson earning the win with 4.0 scoreless innings of relief. Earl McNeely's RBI double with one out in the 12th plated Muddy Reul, who had doubled earlier in the decisive inning that included a pair of Giants errors. While pitching in a starting role, Walter Johnson took the loss in both Games 1 and Game 5. Three of Washington's four wins in the Fall Classic were of the one-run variety. The 1924 World Series remains one of only four World Series to be decided in extra innings of the decisive 7th game.

1925 As defending World Champions in 1925, the AL Nationals won 92 games and claimed another AL flag, but lost to Pittsburgh in a seven-Game Fall Classic. The Pirates topped the Nationals, 9-7, in Game 7 as Walter Johnson and the AL Nationals squandered a 4-0 first-inning lead and eventually suffered the loss. In Game 3, Sam Rice made the most intriguing catch in World Series history. Rice was patrolling Griffith Stadium's right field for the AL Nationals when, in the 8th inning, he made a dynamic catch of a would-be Earl Smith game-tying homer. Rice toppled over the fence in doing so and disappeared from sight. When Rice reappeared and showed the ball, umpires ruled he had successfully made the catch. Following the game, Rice was coy about the catch and penned a letter that was opened only after his death in 1974. The letter simply said, "at no time did I lose possession of the ball."

1933 The '33 AL Nationals earned a postseason berth, going an MLB-best 99-53 (.651) and claiming the AL Championship by 7.0 games over the 91-win Yankees. Washington's pitching staff included a pair of 20-game winners: General Crowder (24 wins) and Earl Whitehill (22). However, the heavily-favored AL Nationals struggled offensively in the Fall Classic, plating two runs or less thrice and hitting a collective .214 with just two home runs in five games. Mel Ott's solo shot in the top of the 10th snapped a 3-3 tie as the Giants claimed both Game 5 and the World Championship.

1981 In a season marred by a six-plus week labor stoppage, the Montreal Expos record a 30-23 (.566) mark in the season's second half to earn Montreal's lone post-season berth in 36 National League seasons. The Expos finished 0.5-game ahead of the Cardinals in the second-half standings (Montreal played one extra game). Montreal matched up against the Phillies in the NLDS and won a decisive Game 5 as Steve Rogers tossed a six-hit shutout to outperform Steve Carlton for the second time in the series. The Expos' dreams of hosting the first World Series games outside of the United States were dashed, however, as Rick Monday hit a 9th-inning solo shot off Rogers to provide the Dodgers a 2-1 win in Game 5 of the NLCS. To this day, October 19 is still referred to as "Blue Monday" in Montreal.

2012 Eight years after landing in D.C., the Washington Nationals claimed their first postseason berth by winning the NL East with a 98-64 record. En route to posting the 98 victories and the best winning percentage (.605) in MLB, the Nationals became the first baseball team representing the nation's capital to reach the postseason since the AL Nationals won the American League pennant in 1933. In the NLDS, the Nationals squared off against the defending World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, who survived MLB's first one-game Wild Card playoff game at Turner Field thanks to a controversial infield fly ruling. Washington stole Game 1 thanks to rookie Tyler Moore's two-run pinch-hit single, which erased a 2-1 deficit with two outs in the 8th inning. The October-tested Cardinals rebounded in Games 2 and 3 with resounding victories. Game 4 rendered one of the great postseason games in D.C. history when, with the game tied 1-1, Jayson Werth led off the bottom of the 9th with a game-ending homer that came on the 13th pitch of his epic at-bat. The collective euphoria following Werth's bolt evaporated just 24 hours later as the Nationals squandered 6-0 (after three innings) and 7-5 (after eight innings) leads before losing the decisive contest, 9-7.

2014 For the second time in three years, the Washington Nationals were crowned National League East Division champions, recording the best record in the National League at 96-66. The Nationals finished the season 17.0 games ahead of the second-place Braves and Mets. In the NLDS, Washington faced off against San Francisco, who survived a one-game Wild Card playoff, topping Pittsburgh in the Steel City. The Nationals dropped the first two games at home, including an 18-inning affair that would turn out to be the longest postseason game in MLB history. Brandon Belt's solo home run in the 18th gave the Giants the 2-1 lead for good. Washington won Game 3 thanks to a three-run seventh inning in which they plated two runs on a throwing error by Madison Bumgarner. In Game 4, the Giants scored the eventual go-ahead run in the seventh inning when Aaron Barrett's 2-1 pitch skipped away from Wilson Ramos, allowing Joe Panik to score. Bryce Harper clubbed three home runs in the series, giving him four career postseason homers before the age of 22, joining Andruw Jones, Miguel Cabrera and Mickey Mantle as the only players in baseball history to do so.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

WASHINGTON, D.C. AND THE NO-HITTER

Throughout the history of baseball in the nation's capital, four pitchers have accomplished the feat of completing a no-hitter. Walter Johnson, Bobby Burke, Jordan Zimmermann and Max Scherzer made their mark in D.C. baseball history with performances detailed below.

Walter Johnson

Bothered by what fans and media would later learn to be a "sore arm," Walter Johnson (H.O.F. 1936) tossed the only no-hitter of his Hall of Fame career on July 1, 1920 in a 1-0 win over the Boston Red Sox. Johnson struck out 10 batters and faced just one over the minimum due to a Bucky Harris' error, allowing Boston's Harry Hooper to reach base in the seventh inning. With two outs in the ninth inning, Hooper again stepped to the plate. He connected on a hard ground ball down the first-base line that many thought would be a base hit. Nationals first baseman Joe Judge made a leaping stab and threw to a covering Walter Johnson to record the final out. Writer Denman Thompson wrote in The Evening Star the following day that Johnson:

> "...earned it solely on the strength of his superb hurling. It is doubtful if Walter ever displayed more speed. He did not depend upon his fast ball entirely. He used plenty of curves and also resorted to slow balls upon occasion, but when he chose to he lined the ball over the plate with such velocity that it was physically impossible for a human to gage its flight."

Bobby Burke

With Walter Johnson patrolling the dugout as Manager of the 1931 Nationals, Bobby Burke recorded the second no-hitter in D.C. baseball history on August 8th, 1931 in a 5-0 win over the visiting Boston Red Sox at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. The 24-year-old lefty struck out eight batters, walking five, en route to the accomplishment. Remarkably, this was Burke's first start for the Nationals in more than a month, as he appeared in six games out of the bullpen in between starts. Burke's no-hitter would be the last one thrown by a D.C. ballplayer until Jordan Zimmermann accomplished the feat more than 83 years later. Manager Walter Johnson told the media following Burke's no hitter:

> "Before I sent Burke into the game, I told him to cut loose...He gained a lot of confidence in those early innings when the Red Sox started missing those third strikes. He was throwing the last pitch over there as if it was the first one and he soon found out he was getting away with it, like we told him he would." - The Washington Post, Aug. 10, 1931

WASHINGTON, D.C. AND THE NO-HITTER

Jordan Zimmermann

On the final day of the 2014 National League East Division championship season, Jordan Zimmermann took the hill against Miami's Henderson Alvarez. Coincidentally, Alvarez tossed a no-hitter on the final day of the 2013 season for the Marlins. Zimmermann was his calm, efficient self, striking out 10 batters while walking just one, Justin Bour, on a 3-2 pitch that home plate umpire Alan Porter determined was just a bit low. Alvarez also spun a gem of his own, with the lone run of the game coming on an Ian Desmond solo home run into the Miami bullpen. Zimmermann's feat would have never materialized had it not been for Steven Souza Jr.'s miraculous play on the final out. His diving, over-the-shoulder catch of a line drive off the bat of Christian Yelich made an out of what was certain to be an extra-base hit. In a moment of pure emotion not usually shown by the stoic Zimmermann, he dropped his head, put his hands on his hips and would later tell the media, he thought "Double. No-doubt double," as the ball carried to deep left field. To make the catch, Souza Jr. dove backward, almost parallel to the ground, in an attempt to secure the ball. When he fell to the ground and reached his glove to the sky, Zimmermann thrust his right arm in the air as the crowd at Nationals Park erupted and the dugout emptied onto the field, mobbing Zimmermann and Souza Jr.

Max Scherzer

Coming off one of the most dominant pitching performances in Nationals history (2005-present), Max Scherzer took the hill at Nationals Park on June 20, 2015 looking to pick up where he left off. In his previous start, Scherzer struck out a then-Nationals-record and career-best 16 Milwaukee Brewers, while allowing just one hit (a Carlos Gomez flare to right field) in 9.0 shutout innings on June 14 at Miller Park. With a severe rain storm in the evening forecast for the Metro D.C. area, Scherzer took the mound at 4:05 p.m. and was perfect through 8.2 innings against a potent Pittsburgh Pirates lineup, striking out 10 batters along the way. With two outs in the top of the ninth inning, Pirates manager Clint Hurdle sent pinch-hitter Jose Tabata to the plate. A battle ensued, with Tabata quickly down 0-2 before working the count to 2-2. With Scherzer on the doorstep of history, Tabata managed to foul off three straight pitches before a slider from Scherzer ran in and hit him on the left elbow. Replays would spark debate as to whether or not Tabata attempted to move out of the way of the pitch, but Scherzer quickly moved on, telling the media: "You just focus on what you can do next. Just move on to the next hitter and go after Harrison, and do everything you can do and just pound him with fastballs. I was able to collect that final out." Indeed, one batter later Scherzer gathered himself and coaxed Josh Harrison into hitting a high fly ball to deep left field that settled into the glove of rookie Michael A. Taylor, completing the first no-hitter of Scherzer's career.

Max Scherzer

With the 2015 season coming to a close, and once again after carrying a no-hitter through 7.1 innings in his previous outing, Max Scherzer took the hill for the final start of his inaugural season in Washington, D.C., vs. the 2015 National League East Division Champion New York Mets. In the second game of a doubleheader, Scherzer turned in one of the most dominant pitching performances in Major League history. Becoming just the sixth pitcher in MLB history to throw two no-hitters in the same season (including the postseason), Scherzer joined Johnny Vander Meer (1938), Allie Reynolds (1951), Virgil Trucks (1952), Nolan Ryan (1973) and Roy Halladay (2010). Scherzer was the first, however, to throw no-hitters against two postseason-bound teams in the same season, and the first to accomplish the dual feats without walking a single batter in either outing. Just one baserunner, catcher Kevin Plawecki, was able to reach base, due to a fielding error by third baseman Yunel Escobar. When his masterpiece was complete, Scherzer struck out a Nationals record (2005-present) and new career-best 17 batters, including a franchise record (Nationals/Expos) nine consecutive batters from the sixth to the ninth inning. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Scherzer's 17 strikeouts tied Nolan Ryan (7/15/73 vs. DET) for the MLB record for strikeouts in a no-hitter. When asked about his place in Major League Baseball history, Scherzer said he was speechless. "You go out there and accomplish as much as you can," he said. "When you start talking about that (kind of history), you don't have words for it."

THE HISTORY OF THE MONTREAL EXPOS (1969-2004)

The city of Montreal had a long association with professional baseball even before it was awarded a Major League franchise in 1968. On April 18, 1946, the Montreal Royals, a minor league affiliate of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the International League, secured their place in baseball history when Jackie Robinson made his professional debut and became the first African-American to play professional baseball in the 20th Century.

More than two decades later, as the National League was seeking to expand by two franchises, former Montreal city councillor Gerry Snyder presented the city's formal bid during an owners' meeting in Mexico City, Mexico. Six months later on May 27, 1968, it was announced that Major League Baseball was expanding outside the United States for the first time as Montreal was awarded a National League franchise to begin play in 1969.

Despite some early concerns about the team's financing, Montreal met its initial deposit deadline and officially became a member of the National League on Aug. 14, 1968. Charles Bronfman, a distillery magnate and an original investor, was named chairman with Paul Beaudry and Lorne Webster as vice-chairmen. John McHale was named president and chief executive officer, while Jim Fanning was appointed the team's first general manager.

On Sept. 5, 1968, the Montreal franchise named Gene Mauch field manager. Mauch was returning to familiar ground as he played two seasons for the minor league Montreal Royals in 1943 and 1944. McHale also announced that the team would be known as the Expos, in recognition of Expos 67, an international exhibition that attracted 50 million visitors to the city in 1967.

Only five days later, pitcher Dave Hartman became the first player to sign a contract with the Expos. Hartman never actually played for the Expos or made it to the Major Leagues. However, an expansion draft was conducted on Oct. 14, 1968 and the Expos selected the following 30 players:

Manny Mota, Mack Jones, John Bateman, Gary Sutherland, John Billingham, Donn Clendenon, Jesus Alou, Mike Wegener, Skip Guinn, Bill Stoneman, Maury Wills, Larry Jackson, Bob Reynolds, Dan McGinn, Jose Herrera, Jim Williams, Angel Hermoso, Jim Grant, Jerry Robertson, Don Shaw, Ty Cline, Garry Jestadt, Carl Morton, Larry Jaster, Ernest McAnally, Jim Fairey, Jose Laboy, John Boccabella, Rob Brand and John Glass.

The Expos' first home ballpark was Jarry Park, a converted minor league stadium named after former councillor Raoul Jarry in 1927. Jarry Park's initial capacity was 3,000, but was expanded to 28,450 as the ballpark met MLB standards.

Montreal made its National League debut on April 8, 1969 at Shea Stadium in New York against one of the National League's last expansion teams, the Mets. The Expos held off a furious ninth inning rally to claim an 11-10 victory. Pitcher Dan McGinn hit the first home run in franchise history, a solo shot off future Hall of Famer Tom Seaver in the fourth inning.

Jarry Park hosted its first regular season game six days later as 29,814 fans witnessed Major League Baseball in Canada for the first time. Despite facing a St. Louis Cardinals lineup that featured names such as Lou Brock, Curt Flood, Dal Maxvill and Joe Torre, the Expos treated their fans to an 8-7 win.

One of the highlights of the inaugural season came on April 17 at Connie Mack Stadium in Philadelphia. Bill Stoneman, later a general manager of the Anaheim Angels, pitched the franchise's first no-hitter in defeating the Phillies, 7-0. The Expos would go on to finish the season with a 52-110 mark.

The following season saw Montreal improve by 21 games under Mauch. 26-year-old pitcher Carl Morton went 18-11 with a 3.26 ERA en route to being named the 1970 NL Rookie of the Year. In 1973, the Expos made their first pennant chase as they won 79 games and were in the race for the National League East title until the last weekend of the season.

After a few disappointing seasons, the Expos moved into Olympic Stadium in 1977, which was the main venue for the 1976 Olympic Games. A crowd of 57,592 fans attended the first game at The Big O as the Expos fell to the Phillies, 7-2.

Montreal started to form the nucleus of a team that would bring home its first NL East title with players such as Ellis Valentine, Andre Dawson, Warren Cromartie, Gary Carter and Steve Rogers. The Expos won 95 games in 1979 only to fall two games shy of the title and was again in the pennant race until the final game of the 1980 season.

In 1981, the Expos finally cleared the hurdle as they won the NL East's second half title in a season shortened by a players' strike. In a best-of-five Divisional Series, Montreal topped first-half champion Philadelphia, three games to two, and advanced to its first NLCS.

The NLCS against Tommy Lasorda's Los Angeles Dodgers went down to the ninth inning of the fifth and deciding game. With the game tied at 1-1, Dodgers outfielder Rick Monday hit a two-out solo homer off Rogers. The Expos put two runners on in the bottom of the ninth, but could not tie the score as Los Angeles advanced to the World Series.

In 1982, Montreal hosted the first Major League Baseball All-Star Game to be held outside of the United States. The National League won its 11th consecutive Midsummer Classic on the strength of a home run by Cincinnati's Dave Concepcion. Five players represented the Expos on the NL squad: Carter, Rogers, Dawson, Tim Raines and Al Oliver.

Montreal remained competitive throughout much of the next decade, including 91 wins in 1987 by a team led by Raines, Andres Galarraga, Hubie Brooks and Tim Wallach.

Bronfman sold the franchise to team president Claude Brochu on June 14, 1991. The next season Brochu appointed long-time Montreal coach Felipe Alou as field manager. Alou guided the Expos to 87 victories and a second-place finish in his first year at the helm and then improved upon that with 94 wins in 1993.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

The 1994 season saw a core group of players such as Larry Walker, Marquis Grissom, Moises Alou, Pedro Martinez, Ken Hill and John Wetteland storm out to a 74-40 mark - the best in the Major Leagues - and a six-game lead in the newly-formed National League East on Aug. 11. However, the season was never completed. A players' strike began the following day that would wipe out the remainder of the 1994 schedule.

After the changing economics of the baseball landscape forced the Expos to trade some of those core players, the '95 team finished in last place in the NL East. It was only the second time since 1977 that Montreal finished in last place.

Two years later, Martinez continued to establish himself as one of the top starting pitchers in the Major Leagues. He posted a 17-8 record with a 1.90 ERA, 305 strikeouts and 13 complete games en route to being the only Expos' pitcher to win the National League Cy Young Award. That winter, Martinez was traded to the Boston Red Sox.

The 1998 season was marked by stellar individual performances on the field and uncertainty off the field. 22 year-old outfielder Vladimir Guerrero displayed his immense talent by setting six Montreal records, including the club single season home run mark. Also, 24 year-old closer Ugueth Urbina recorded 34 saves with a 1.30 ERA, and Alou became the franchise's most successful manager with his 521st victory on August 19.

Off the field, Brochu continued to struggle in an attempt to finalize funding for a new downtown ballpark and announced his willingness to sell his shares of the franchise. In 1999, Jeffrey Loria was officially approved as the Expos controlling person following a buy-back of Brochu's shares. In February 2002, Major League Baseball approved the sale of the Florida Marlins to Loria and the sale of the Expos to Major League Baseball and the 29 other Major League Clubs. A new Expos senior management team was announced: Tony Tavares (president), Omar Minaya (general manager) and Hall of Famer Frank Robinson (field manager). Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig also announced the formation of a relocation committee to seek a permanent home for the franchise.

The 2003 and 2004 seasons saw the Expos make baseball history by playing a portion of their home schedule at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Fans in Puerto Rico celebrated the return of Major League Baseball to the island. The Expos drew nearly 530,000 fans and posted a 20-23 mark over their 43 games played at Hiram Bithorn Stadium during the two-season trial. On Sept. 29, 2004, Commissioner Selig announced the formal approval of the relocation of the Expos franchise to the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., for the 2005 season.

TRIPLE YOUR PLEASURE

Since baseball's return to D.C. in 2005, the Nationals (thru 2015) have played 1,780 games, but have not had the thrill of turning a triple play. With that void in mind, below are some notes on where the triple play fits into Washington's baseball history.

THE LAST TIME A D.C.-BASED TEAM HIT INTO A TRIPLE PLAY: May 19, 2010 vs. NYM. Cristian Guzman laced a sinking liner to center field that resulted in an unconventional 8-2-6-3 triple play. Angel Pagan retired Guzman by snagging the line drive, but Pagan's throw to second base was off target and bounced toward the mound, where the catcher Henry Blanco raced to scoop it up. Blanco immediately fired the ball to the SS Jose Reyes at second base to double off Livan Hernandez. Reyes then gunned the ball to 1B Ike Davis, who toed the bag to "triple" off Nyjer Morgan, who began the play at first base.

THE LAST TRIPLE PLAY TURNED BY THE WASHINGTON SENATORS: July 30, 1968 at Cleveland Stadium. It was an unassisted triple play turned by SS Ron Hansen, who caught Joe Azcue's popup before tagging Dave Nelson (began play on second base) and Russ Snyder (began play on first base) out in sequence to cap the bottom of the first inning.

THE LAST TIME A D.C.-BASED TEAM TURNED A TRIPLE PLAY IN A HOME GAME: April 24, 1954 vs. BOS. With runners on first (Billy Goodman) and second (Tom Brewer) base, BOS' Karl Olsen popped up a bunt and the AL Nationals turned a 1-6-3 triple play as LHP Mickey McDermott and SS Mel Hoderlein each recorded a putout and an assist on the play. 1B Roy Sievers finished the tri-killing with a putout.

NATIONALS ON TELEVISION

MASN

The television home of the Washington Nationals, MASN is an independent regional sports network that televises every available Nationals game. Owned by the Nationals and the Baltimore Orioles, the network gives fans exclusive access to action on the field and inside the game. For the sixth consecutive year, Bob Carpenter and F.P. Santangelo will return to the broadcast booth to provide fans play-by-play and color analysis during MASN's Nationals telecasts. For the third straight season they will be joined by Dan Kolko on the sideline.

Before every game, MASN televises the Nationals' exclusive pregame show, NatsXtra, during which hosts Johnny Holliday and Ray Knight offer engaging insight and analysis about the upcoming matchup. After each game, MASN televises the NatsXtra postgame show, featuring game highlights, player interviews and the manager's press conference.

All of MASN's cable, satellite and fiber optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season and most providers also carry MASN HD and MASN2 HD. Visit www.masnsports.com for local listings.

MASN's television territory covers all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia, from Harrisburg, PA., to Charlotte, N.C., including Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and West Virginia. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information, visit www.masnsports.com.

BOB CARPENTER

Bob Carpenter enters his 11th season with MASN and the Nationals, and his 33rd in Major League Baseball. Carpenter came to Washington in 2006 after 10 years on TV and radio with the St. Louis Cardinals and 16 seasons of MLB on ESPN. During the offseason, Carpenter handles basketball play-by-play for the University of Oklahoma and Oral Roberts University. The St. Louis native debuted in 1984 with Cardinals baseball on the Sportstime Cable Network, then returned in 1995 on KPLR-TV and KMOX Radio. He has been nominated for four St. Louis/Mid-America Emmys, winning twice (1996 and 1997), and a National Capital/Chesapeake Bay Emmy in 2008 for his Nationals play-by-play. In January, Carpenter was named a co-recipient of the 2014 D.C. Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. Carpenter also appeared on TV in the 1980s and 1990s with Texas, New York (NL) and Minnesota. Carpenter worked MLB, college basketball and college football during 18 seasons of play-by-play with ESPN from 1988-2005. He has broadcast baseball playoffs, Triple-A All-Star Games, NCAA and NIT Basketball Tournaments and College Football bowl games. His studio work includes College Gameday and College Football Scoreboard shows. During his tenure with ESPN, Carpenter was paired with former major leaguers Buck Martinez, Joe Morgan, Jim Palmer, Ray Knight, Jerry Reuss, Frank Viola and many others. On the basketball side, he worked with Dick Vitale, Bill Raftery, Larry Conley and Jim Valvano, among others. Carpenter announced the 2005 NCAA Basketball Final Four in his hometown of St. Louis for NCAA International TV, one of his seven NCAA tournaments. Prior to ESPN, Carpenter handled a variety of sports for the USA Network, including college basketball and football, PGA Golf (including The Masters) and professional tennis (including the U.S. Open). Carpenter has announced numerous soccer events at RFK Stadium, starting as the TV voice of Team USA in 1983, and also worked several matches during the 1994 World Cup. Carpenter began his broadcasting career in 1976 as the baseball play-by-play announcer with the Tulsa Oilers. Carpenter earned a Radio-TV-Film degree with honors from the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1975. Carpenter and his wife of 36 years, Debbie, have two daughters, Katie and Allison.

F.P. SANTANGELO

F.P. Santangelo returns for his sixth season broadcasting Nationals games on MASN, working alongside play-by-play veteran Bob Carpenter. Prior to joining MASN in 2011, Santangelo earned broadcast experience announcing San Francisco Giants games on CSN Bay Area and the Giants Radio Network, as well as hosting radio talk shows on San Francisco's KNBR-680 AM and Sacramento's KHTK-1140 AM. Santangelo played parts of seven seasons in the Major Leagues with the Montreal Expos, Giants, Los Angeles Dodgers and Oakland A's during his 14-year professional career. He batted .245 with 87 doubles, 14 triples, 21 homers, 162 RBI and 37 stolen bases in 665 MLB games and appeared in one postseason, with Oakland in 2001. Primarily an outfielder, Santangelo played six different positions during his career and played under former Nationals manager Davey Johnson in 2000 (LAD). He was selected by the Expos in the 20th round of the 1989 First-Year Player Draft, and finished fourth in the 1996 NL Rookie of the Year voting. Santangelo, who is a father of two: FP Jr. (20) and Summer (18), played collegiately at Sacramento City College and the University of Miami, after graduating from Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, CA.

DAN KOLKO

Dan Kolko returns for his third season as the on-field reporter for Nationals broadcasts on MASN. In total, this will be his fifth season covering the team for the network; he served as Nationals beat writer for MASNsports.com from 2012-14, and also could be seen as a fill-in analyst on MASN's NatsXtra pre- and post-game shows. Kolko is also a contributor to MLB Network as a Nationals correspondent, and he earned experience working in television commercials when he served as the "host" in Toyota's 2013 regional commercial spots involving Bryce Harper and Stephen Strasburg. Kolko previously covered the Baltimore Ravens for MASN from 2008-11, writing for the network's website and providing on-air analysis for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Report. Prior to joining MASN, Kolko worked with Comcast SportsNet in a production role. A native of Silver Spring, Md., Kolko earned his Bachelor of Arts in Communication from the University of Delaware.

NATIONALS ON THE RADIO

106.7 "THE FAN"

For the sixth consecutive season, 106.7 The Fan will serve as the official flagship radio station for Washington Nationals baseball. CBS RADIO owns and operates 106.7 The Fan, which broadcasts select Nationals Spring Training games, as well as all regular season and potential postseason games. Charlie Slowes and Dave Jageler are back in the booth once again, marking their 11th consecutive season together as the Nationals' radio broadcast team. Slowes has been with the Nationals since the club's inaugural campaign in 2005, while Jageler joined him behind the mic in 2006.

As part of their agreement, 106.7 The Fan will broadcast a variety of Nationals-related programs, including daily reports from Spring Training, pre- and post-game shows.

The station will also operate a studio set at Nationals Park for pre- and post-game coverage, as well as special live broadcasts of its local sports talk shows. 106.7 The Fan broadcasts an exciting lineup of local sports talk shows including The Sports Junkies, The Grant & Danny Show, and the Chad Dukes vs. The World show.

CHARLIE SLOWES

An original play-by-play voice of the Nationals, Charlie Slowes joined the Nationals Feb. 24, 2005, in time for their inaugural spring training broadcasts. Calling the first pitch in club history and many other historic firsts that season, Slowes' trademark tag lines, "Bang Zoom go the Fireworks," and "A Curly 'W' is in the books," after Nationals victories soon became part of the Beltway baseball lexicon. The 2016 season marks Slowes' 12th with the Nationals, his 19th consecutive year calling Major League Baseball, and 24th overall. He enters the campaign having called 2,951 MLB regular-season and postseason games, including 1,788 with the Nationals. Several moments in 2005 rank in Slowes' top Nationals moments, along with Jayson Werth's memorable walk-off home run in Game 4 of the 2012 National League Division series. Calling three no-hitters in just over a calendar year, thrown by Jordan Zimmermann (Sept. 28, 2014) and Max Scherzer (June 20 & Oct. 3, 2015), and Bryce Harper's three-homer game last season are also among Slowes' career highlights. Baseball's return to the nation's capital in 2005 also marked a return to Washington for Slowes, named the radio voice of the NBA's Washington Bullets in 1986 at just 25 years of age. Slowes called Bullets games through the 1996-97 season, including two years of radio/TV simulcasts. The eleven-year run was then a franchise record, eclipsed by Slowes' successor and current Wizards' voice, Dave Johnson. Slowes made the switch to Major League Baseball full-time in 1998 as an original radio voice of the Tampa Bay Rays, calling their first seven seasons. Slowes had previously called games for the New York Mets (1988 &1991) on WFAN-AM, the Baltimore Orioles (1989-90) on WBAL-AM, and on the network level for NBC-TV and CBS Radio. Slowes also called Triple-A baseball for the Tidewater Tides on radio and TV in 1986, 1988, 1991 and 1992. Slowes is among the ever-growing list (starting with legendary Ford Frick Award winner and Hall of Famer Vin Scully) to have entered sports broadcasting after graduating from Fordham University in his native New York City, and having honed his skills on Fordham's 50,000-watt blowtorch, WFUV 90.7 FM. Slowes' first career break came not long after graduation, early in 1984 at KMOX Radio in St. Louis, where for three years he was exposed to the likes of another Ford Frick Award winner, the late Jack Buck, and broadcasting great Bob Costas. In three years in St. Louis, Slowes was involved in broadcasts of St.Louis Cardinals baseball, St. Louis Cardinals football, St. Louis Blues hockey and play-by-play of St. Louis University basketball. In three decades as a play-by-play broadcaster, Slowes has also called boxing for ESPN, MISL soccer for the New York Arrows (1983) and college basketball at the University of South Florida. During the Nationals' 2012 NL East Division Championship chase, Slowes joined MLB Network's afternoon show, "The Rundown," and will again report for the TV network in 2016. The Slowes family – Charlie, his wife, Tina, and sons, Jim (22), and Alex (18) – splits its time between homes in Palm Harbor, FL and Alexandria, VA.

DAVE JAGELER

Dave Jageler enters his 11th season with the Nationals after spending the 2005 campaign as the radio and TV voice of the Pawtucket Red Sox of the Triple-A International League. Jageler joined Gary Cohen, Don Orsillo, Dave Flemming and Andy Freed as Pawtucket products who've graduated to the Major Leagues in recent years. Prior to joining Pawtucket, Jageler worked in Boston co-hosting an afternoon talk show and serving in various capacities with the Boston Celtics radio network, including fill-in play-by-play. Jageler spent six years in Charlotte as the voice of UNC-Charlotte basketball and co-hosting a morning drive talk show. While in Charlotte, he built his baseball resume with the Triple-A Charlotte Knights in the 1995, 1996 and 2001 seasons doing play-by-play. Jageler's voice was also heard in D.C., as he served as a host on the Virginia Tech Sports Network during the 1993-94 basketball season. He has also served as the studio host for Westwood One's NHL Game of the Week, the Florida State and Texas Longhorns football networks and has done fill-in play-by-play for both the Seminoles and Longhorns. The Windsor, CT, native is a graduate of Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, where he began his play-by-play career broadcasting Syracuse football and basketball games on WAER, and baseball for the Triple-A Syracuse Chiefs on Time Warner Cable and the Empire Sports Network. Jageler and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Jared (16) and Sarah (12).
